Sunday Services at 8:30am and 10:30am

November is traditionally a month of gratitude, generosity and national Thanksgiving. Before we begin the season of Advent in three short weeks, I've decided to share a series of messages on a biblical understanding of generosity, stewardship, and gratitude. For each of these sermons we will look at an encounter Jesus had in the gospels that sheds light on HIs understanding of stewardship. This Sunday we will look at an interaction between Jesus and a group trying to trap him in his words by using the concept of money and loyalty. Follow along with today's sermon by reading Luke 20:20-26. Keep watch for the principles of stewardship that Jesus lays down and in doing so leaves his opponents (and even his followers) speechless.
