Sunday Services at 8:30am and 10:30am

Our Easter sermon series continues this week as we study Ephesians 1:5-12. We are preaching through Paul's ancient letter to this beloved church in a style called "Lectio Continua". Also known as "Expository Preaching," we are preaching through every verse in Ephesians. This week we will specifically discuss your Christology (a fancy word for what you believe about Jesus). Additionally, these verses reveal what the Apostle Paul believes and asserts to be true about Jesus. These verses are truly as powerful as they are beautiful in their description of Jesus. Unfortunately, several words Paul uses have historically drawn our attention away from Jesus, away from essentials, and away from the ultimate meaning of these verses. See if you can spot what those words are. The following questions can help you reflect, journal and discuss today's message on your discipleship journey:

1. Write out your Christology (What do you believe about Jesus: who he is to you personally, and who he is to the world in general. What is true about him?):
2. As you read through Ephesians 1:5-12, what would you say Paul's Christology is? List all the benefits of following the risen Jesus in a community of other Jesus followers.
3. How have the topics of 'predestination' and 'being chosen' been introduced to you in your life? What do you think they mean? How can focusing on these words in Ephesians 1 detract from understanding and applying who Jesus is described to be in this chapter?

Announcements and Upcoming Events at North Point

Puzzle Challenge During Fellowship Time! You all did an amazing job on last Sunday's Pendleton Puzzle Challenge—thank you for working together so beautifully! This week, we're back at it with a new challenge: a 500-piece New Yorker magazine cover puzzle. Join us again during Fellowship Time to laugh, connect, and put the pieces together—whether you stay for a few minutes or dive right in. Every contribution counts, and the fun is always better together!

PRACTICING THE WAY Course: Would you like to grow deeper in your walk with God? Are there old life patterns that nip at your heels and do not bring you more life? How do we become like Jesus in our everyday life. At North Point this opportunity for spiritual formation begins with a small group after the 8:30am service or the 10:30am service. Starting last week and running for eight weeks (a break for Memorial weekend) until June 7th. For questions email Jann Stimac at jann.stimac@gmail.com. Childcare is available.
