THE EPISTLE TO THE EPHESIANS

We continue our Ephesians sermon series with the second half of chapter 2 (Ephesians 2:11-22). Having shared the good news of "Redemption" (our salvation is not earned, but a free gift of God's grace, accessed by faith and faith alone), the Apostle Paul is now going to share the good news of "Reconciliation." We will discuss the 'dividing walls' that existed when Paul was writing and the 'dividing walls' that exist in our world today.

Paul's message of "Reconciliation" will speak into our deep seeded divisions and call our church to be a 'credible witness' in a divided world. The following discussion questions may help you delve deeper into today's sermon topic:

1. What are the top three "Big Divisions" in our world today? How about the top three "Big Divisions" in your personal life?
2. Was the division between Jews and Gentiles in the first century comparable to our divisions today?
3. How can the church stay united, free of division, and seek the "reconciliation" that Christ calls us to? What can you do as a member of the church to carry out this calling?
4. How can the church speak into and help bring reconciliation to the division that exists outside its walls?

Build a Community—Brick by Brick! Join us this Sunday during Fellowship time for a hands-on, creative activity with Legos! Help us imagine and build our church neighborhood—starting with the church itself and growing it with houses, spaces, and places that reflect the community we share together. As we hear from Ephesians 2:11, we're reminded that God is bringing people together who were once far apart, forming one new community in Christ. Come add your piece and be part of building "Heaven on Earth"—one brick at a time!
