Sunday Services at 8:30am and 10:30am

“Soul Care,” means tending to the health of that eternal part of us, so our minds and bodies can work in harmony and our relationships, with God and neighbor, can thrive. During this Lenten sermon series, we’ve learned that our souls need to be blessed and to bless, to be free and to be centered in God. This morning, we consider our soul’s need to rest in God. Jesus invites us: “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.” (Matt.11:28)

- Why might this invitation be hard to accept?
- What could you tell a friend who feels too busy for Sabbath worship, unhurried Bible study or prayer?
- Do you know sincere Christians who experience burnout more than rest?
- Are you one of them?
- Giving up something during the Lenten season can create more room in your life for God. Has what you’ve given up created more room to rest in God?
