LESSON V

Week 5

COMMUNICATING WITH GOD

I. GOD TALKS TO ME THROUGH HIS WORD

OBJECTIVE:

To gain spiritual dependence on God's Word for daily Christian living.

MEMORY VERSE:

“But be ye doers of the Word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.” (James 1:22)

“When you personally received Christ as your Savior and Lord, you began a great adventure. That great adventure is mapped out in the pages of the Holy Scriptures. As you read and study the Bible in the power of the Holy Spirit, you will find strength and direction. You will learn and claim the many great promises God has reserved for us.”

Approach the Bible in prayer, with reverence, awe, expectancy; with a willing mind; with a thirst for truth and righteousness and fullness in the Lord Jesus Christ; with a humble and contrite heart, trusting God and the Holy Spirit to engraft therein the cleansing power.

“If a man loves me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.” (John 14:23)

PRAYER

II. LEARNING HOW TO TALK TO GOD

OBJECTIVE:

To learn how to use the great power available through prayer.

MEMORY VERSE: If ye shall ask anything in my name, I will do it.

John 14:14.

Prayer is the inspiring experience of conversing with and praising God as our loving heavenly Father. Few experiences can equal prayer in empowering Christians and lifting them above their problems. Many times, lack of character can be traced to lack of a prayer life. When it is hardest to pray, one should pray hardest. Our prayer life should be such that we come to know the Lord Jesus in a personal way. Our prayer life becomes effective as our relationship with Christ becomes more intimate.

Part Two of Lesson Five Examines:

What is prayer? _____

Who can pray? _____ (John 9:31).

Why we should pray? _____ (I Thess. 5:16,18; Matt. 26:41).

To whom? _____ (Psalm 5:1,2).

In whose name? _____ (John 16:24).

Who is praying for us? _____ (John 17:9).

When, where, what should we prayer for? _____
