

Every Word

© 2018 Joe Deegan. Words and music by Joe Deegan.

1. Though the grass withers and fades, though the stars fall from the sky
Every Word of God endures and never dies
Though the mountains melt like wax, though the trees return to sod
Everlasting is the Word of our great God

(CHORUS)

Every Word of God is true (he is making all things new)
Every Word of God is true (taste and see the Lord is good)

2. Though we walk with fears and doubts, though we step where we can't see
The Word of God will be a lamp unto our feet
Though we sojourn as the pilgrim in a land of lies and death
The Word of God will give us hope and life and breath

(CHORUS)

(TURN)

(BRIDGE)

In the beginning was the Word; that word became flesh and dwelt with us
He who has ears let him hear, the Word of God is drawing near
He who has ears let him hear, the Word of God is drawing nearer and nearer and nearer

(CHORUS)