Unoffendable: What Humans are Like

1 Corinthians 4:3-5; John 2: 24-25

Here's what I want us to consider today: What if - the thing that feels most righteous - is what's making us most miserable?

FIRST, LOWER OUR EXPECTATIONS.

The Apostle Paul reminds us "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." Romans 3:23,

NEXT, RAISE OUR LEVEL OF GRACE.

THIRD, SURRENDER OUR INTERNAL NARRATIVE.

AND FINALLY, PUT DOWN THE WEIGHT. UNoffendability is not defeat - it is rest. Aren't you tired?

REMEMBER: Lower your expectations

Raise your grace

Surrender your narrative

Put down the weight

Little by little, as we practice offering forgiveness and grace, we will find ourselves walking in a deeper freedom. A freedom that helps us begin to look more Christ-like and enjoy an UNOFFENDABLE life!

Ask yourself:

What is the 'bedtime story' you've been rehearsing?

What is one specific offense, small or large, are you willing to practice putting down and forgive this week?
