A Note from Pastor Clay

Wednesday night Bible study is such a good time for us as a church family to fellowship, share prayer concerns and a time of prayer and, of course, feed on God's Word. Twice each month we also feed on some delicious meals and desserts. If you have not been attending regularly, I want to encourage you to take advantage of this opportunity in the life of our church that is unlike any other.

Here's some Breaking News: Our church leadership has decided that we'll take a different approach to Wednesday nights in the summer. So, for June, July and August we will be meeting for Bible study ONLY on the two each nights each month when we have a meal.

Recently we concluded a five-week study of Psalm 23. On Wednesday nights this summer we will engage in a study of what the Bible says about a variety of matters. Here is a preliminary list of dates and topics:

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS...

June 10: About Women

June 24: About Aging

July 8: CHURCHWIDE JULY FOURTH CELEBRATION (250 Years)

July 22: Quarterly Business Meeting

August 12: About Christian Citizenship

August 26: About Children

We will likely extend the study into the fall and cover other topics like: Anger, Anxiety, Criticism, Forgiveness, War and Peace, Depression, Trials, Work, Things that are Sure, Salvation, the Church, the Bible itself.

When you're in town, be a regular on Wednesday nights!
