A Note from Pastor Clay

The church has always been, and continues to be, a “volunteer army” for Christ, and Nashville Baptist Church is something of a role model in volunteerism. Your being organized into ministry groups is such an effective concept and practical approach to ministry, and even more impressive in a time when a church is “between” pastoral leadership. Your church staff at NBC is impressed by and grateful for the way in which you are receptive and responsive to ministry opportunities both within and outside our fellowship. As I mentioned in a recent sermon, you don’t wait for staff to introduce new opportunities to serve our fellowship and community rather, you bring opportunities to staff. The recent pancake breakfast fund raiser for Operation Christmas Child and involvement in LifeWise ministry are just two notable examples.

Your church staff appreciates so much all the work in ministry done by our church volunteers that we have planned a special NBC Volunteer Appreciation Dinner just to honor you for your service in Jesus’ name. We are inviting our ENTIRE CHURCH FAMILY to dinner on Wednesday, October 28, 5:30 in the fellowship hall, to express our gratitude for your generous service. This dinner is free to all, and while every member is encouraged to participate, we especially want the members and co-laborers of our Ministry Teams to be present. We want you to feel like honored guests!

Since this dinner is catered and free to all, we do need everyone to make a reservation with the church office no later than Wednesday, October 21. April, Blaine, Irma and I look forward to recognizing you and serving you, so please make this event a priority.

Church family, we are most grateful for YOU!
