Dear Adults,

We are reading... _____

Use the sheet with your child to study the passage in Joshua this week. Each of you has a part to complete.
Pass it back and forth.

Stuck? You can always ask your child:

Where did you "read" about beginnings or major mistakes?

Where did you "see" beginnings or major mistakes?

Bring this back to church and show your teacher it's done!
Receive a punch in your bookmark towards a prize.

Adult:

Write a note to your child about what your hopes are for this time.

Child:

Draw a picture of you and your adult reading the Bible together. How does it make you feel?

A large, empty rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for a child to draw a picture of themselves and an adult reading the Bible together.

4TH - 5TH

Day 1

Adult/Child:

Read the passage.

Ask: How is the person changing? How are they making things easier or harder?

Child:

Fill out the plot map. Include the verses where you found your information.

Adult:

Add anything your child is missing. Include the verse references.

4TH - 5TH Day 2

Adult:

Reread the passage. Make a list of all the external conflicts the person experiences. Include the verse references.

Conflict:

Conflict:

Conflict:

Child:

Reread the passage on your own. Look at the list your adult made of conflicts in the story. Add anything your adult missed. Include the verse references.

4TH - 5TH Day 3

Adult/Child:

Discuss: How is the person changing? How are they making things better or worse?

Child:

Look at the list of conflicts on the last page. For each piece of conflict, find what internal conflicts that person might be dealing with - think character traits!

Adult:

Read what your child wrote. What do you think? Add your own thoughts with verse references.
