Missions Highlight

Jim and Joan Hansen

Jim and Joan are both doing well as they recover from several surgeries. They are adjusting to being first-time homeowners, "turning [their] house into a home" with friends who have come to help paint. They serve on the care team that focuses on retired missionaries with BMW. The team's primary purpose is to meet and become acquainted with retired missionaries and discover how they can encourage and help them. Together, Jim and Joan are teaching an introduction to sign language class to a group of homeschoolers. Jim disciples young men, and together they lead a SALT (Senior Adults Living Triumphantly) group. They also participate in a biweekly Bible study going through the book of Hebrews. They have also made it a point to see and connect with as many deaf and deaf-blind people as possible from their former Commission On Compassion (COC) ministry, touch base with supporters along the way, and, of course, see their kids and grandkids when possible. They tell us, "We are truly enjoying our new home. Enjoying our life here in Northwest Arkansas. God is good ... all the time! We thank you for your prayers and encouragement for us. We pray God blesses you and keeps you in His Way." To receive a copy of their correspondence with SCBC, email Tom Benson at tomb@scbc.cc.
