Missions Highlight

Kirk & Juanita McKeeth | Nampa, ID

Kirk and Juanita McKeeth minister at El Tesoro (The Treasure), a church ministry that primarily serves Spanish-speaking individuals and families in Nampa. They are now transitioning into retirement after 50 years of ministry in Chico, California; Tacoma, Washington; Panama; and Idaho. As the church's pastor, counselor, and teacher, Kirk brings the hope of the Gospel to individuals and families facing complicated family dynamics. He also mentors men and equips them for pastoral and teaching opportunities. Juanita leads the women's ministry, prioritizing Bible study and discipleship for new female believers. As the McKeeths transition to retirement, please pray for them as they develop gifted men and women to assume their leadership and ministry responsibilities. Pray for their son Karl, who serves in the Army and is stationed in Korea, and for their daughter Annie as she awaits a missionary assignment. The McKeeths write, "We are so grateful and blessed by the long-term relationship with Santa Clarita Baptist Church. We count our time there as a great kindness from the Lord." To receive a copy of their correspondence with SCBC, email Tom Benson at tomb@scbc.cc.
