

HOPENEWS

Entering 2026 with Expectation

As we step into 2026, we do so with expectation for breakthrough. God is never caught off guard and as we launch a new year, we can do so with confidence that every challenge already has a God-provided answer or promise.

Jesus invites us to see through the lens of His Word rather than through the lens of the world. When our focus is fixed on our circumstances and problems, faith becomes difficult—not because God is absent, but because our attention is on what we see is going on around us. Peter looked on the waves and not on Jesus' word to him, 'come'.

What we meditate on shapes our thoughts, our choices, and ultimately our lives. Psalm 1 reminds us that meditating on God's Word day and night produces lasting fruit. In many ways, what we are experiencing today is the harvest of what we believed and meditated on or spoke yesterday.

This new year, the invitation is simple: meditate on God's promises. Let His Word shape your desires, your thoughts, and your expectations. When our hearts and minds are anchored in truth, we can walk with confidence into the future.

Fern and I invite you to journey with us through 2026 with expectation and faith for breakthrough. As we seek first His Kingdom—righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit—let's partner together to see God's Kingdom expand in our lives and in the world around us.

KLN Live Webinar

Testimonies:

“The Victory Unveiled, our first webinar, exceeded registration expectations and maintained strong engagement throughout. Participant response reflected a clear hunger for New Covenant clarity, rest, and freedom in Christ.”

“Thank you for the words you spoke in the webinar last night! Very powerful and encouraging!... It was so clear and we watched it on our big screen with the children, and they were able to follow along as well.”

The next webinar, (February 10), will unpack how the blood of Jesus secured our covenant rights, why prayer flows from agreement rather than striving, and how understanding the Blood Covenant empowers you to live with Heaven’s authority.

When covenant is understood, faith rises, authority is restored, and life begins to reflect God’s promises.

Betrayal & Beyond

Here at Door of Hope PA, we offer Betrayal & Beyond (BB) — a class for women healing from sexual betrayal by their husbands. Groups consist of 4–5 women who meet for two hours, three times a month from September through April. The curriculum helps participants process their pain, complete guided homework, and share insights as they move toward healing.

"As leader, my priority is to provide a safe, supportive space for a wife to share her story, be validated, grieve her losses, and understand betrayal trauma."

"The class supports personal growth and, when appropriate, rebuilding trust through self-awareness, boundaries, communication, and forgiveness, without placing blame for the betrayal."

– Lisa Detweiler
