

Proposed Questions for Spirit of the Antichrist and Great Last Days Deception Interviews:

Opening

- You've released a series of three books focused on the spirit of Antichrist and the False Prophet. What burden led you to write this series?
- Before we dive into specifics, what do you believe Christians are sensing about the world that prompted these books?
- You describe a "gathering cloud of deception." What does that mean biblically?

Spirit of Antichrist Books - Core Message

- For those unfamiliar with the term, what is the spirit of Antichrist biblically?
- Why is it important to understand that this spirit operates before the Antichrist himself appears?
- What convinced you that global deception is accelerating?
- You argue that many lies are hiding in plain sight. What kinds of deception are hardest for believers to recognize?

Spirit of Antichrist Volume One: The Gathering Cloud of Deception

- What patterns led you to conclude that the world is moving toward a system preparing the way for the Antichrist?
- When Christians look at today's headlines, what should they evaluate differently because of what you wrote in Volume One?
- How do spiritual deception and geopolitical developments connect?
- What role do media, information control, and narrative shaping play in deception today?

(Natural Current Event Bridge)

- When you look at today's headlines, what developments most closely reflect what you warned about in Volume One?

Spirit of Antichrist Volume Two: Escalation of Deception

- Why did Volume Two become necessary? What escalation are you seeing?
- You discuss transhumanism and changing definitions of humanity. Why is that prophetically significant?
- Scripture speaks of increasing lawlessness and confusion in the last days. How do you see that unfolding culturally?
- Why do you believe society is becoming more receptive to centralized authority and control?

Spirit of the False Prophet: Rise of the Global Technocracy

- Let's talk about your book on the False Prophet. Biblically, who is the False Prophet and how does he differ from the Antichrist?
- You connect the False Prophet to a coming global technocracy. What does that look like?

- How might technology enable religious, economic, and political control simultaneously?
- You discuss AI and digital identity systems. Why are those developments especially significant prophetically?
- Do you believe we are seeing early models of the system described as the mark of the Beast?

Technology and Control

- Technology plays a major role in your books. Why is this generation uniquely positioned compared to previous ones?
- Are developments like AI, digital currency, and biometric systems prophetically significant, or simply tools that could be misused?
- When major technological breakthroughs make headlines, how should believers evaluate them through a biblical lens?

Latest Book: The Great Last Days Apostasy: How the American Church Is Falling Away

- In your newest book The Great Last Days Apostasy, you warn that the church itself is entering a season of falling away. What evidence persuaded you we are living in that moment?
- Biblically, what does apostasy actually mean?
- Why is apostasy primarily an internal church issue rather than just a worldly problem?
- You outline several ways the church is falling away. What areas concern you most right now?
- You emphasize that the erosion of biblical authority is the root issue. How did the church begin losing confidence in Scripture?
- How does abandoning a literal interpretation of the Bible lead to doctrinal and moral confusion?
- Are churches reshaping theology to fit culture rather than calling culture to repentance?

Doctrine, Prophecy, and Church Leadership

- Why is end-times theology such an important battleground for truth today?
- What happens when churches stop teaching Bible prophecy?
- How does confusion about the future affect how Christians live in the present?
- You've spoken about ministry becoming a platform rather than a calling. What concerns you most about leadership trends today?
- What should believers look for in faithful church leadership during a time of apostasy?

Discernment for Believers

- With so much information and misinformation today, how can Christians develop true biblical discernment?
- Where do you see the modern church most vulnerable to deception?
- How can believers stay alert without becoming fearful or obsessed with conspiracy thinking?
- What role does sound doctrine play in resisting deception?
- What practical disciplines help believers remain spiritually grounded?

Prophecy and Current Events

- You've studied prophecy for decades. Are today's developments unique, or part of a longer historical pattern?
- What mistakes do Christians make when connecting prophecy to current events?
- How do we stay watchful without setting dates or chasing headlines?
- What signs should believers watch spiritually rather than politically?

Pastoral and Personal Perspective

- As a pastor, how do you teach difficult prophetic themes while still giving hope?
- After studying deception so deeply, what strengthens your confidence in God's plan?
- What encouragement would you give Christians who feel unsettled by the direction of the world?
- How should believers live differently if we truly believe we are nearing the end of the age?

Big Picture Reflection

- If someone reads these books, what central message do you most want the church to understand?
- What do you believe God is calling believers to do right now?
- Would you describe this moment as a season of warning, preparation, or awakening?

Wrap Up

- How can our audience stay connected with your ministry and find your books?
- If listeners remember only one thing from our conversation today, what do you most want them to take away?
