

Dan and Beth Long

Heading to California

9/22/2026

Chaplain Dan's Hat.

(Do you know the way to San Jose?)

I'm at the Charlotte airport getting ready to fly to San Jose airport. From there, I'll pick up my rental car and drive to Salinas. I'll be around the Salinas/ Monterey Bay Area this week, trying to connect with churches and friends. On Sunday, I will be at First Baptist Watsonville. Then on Monday, I head back home.

On October 5, I head up to Canada to be with our SIM team there for their Spiritual Life Conference. I'll get back home on the 10th.

On October 21, I fly to Cyprus, for Crisis Response Training, which will help me as I work with our workers who have experienced traumatic situations. On the way home from Cyprus, I will stop off in Chicago (Wheaton) for a quick visit with my mom. I'll return home on November 5.

As you can see, I am mostly traveling for the next six weeks. I really appreciate your prayers for me along the way, but also for Beth as she cares for her mom (It's a blessed but heavy load).
