

- Be Steady Devotions -

Saturday Morning

Reread 1 Corinthians 16:13-14. Ponder this verse in your heart and lift up a prayer unto Him.

Look up the following verses:

Ephesians 4:1-3. Ephesians 5:8-10; Ephesians 5:15-17;
Ephesians 5: 1-2.

Is there any area of improvement that you need to work on in your walk with Jesus? Lay your heart before the Throne.

Look up the following verses:

1 Peter 3:1-6; Ephesians 5:22-24; Ephesians 5:33.

Is there any area of improvement that you need to work on in your marriage? Lay your heart before the Throne.

Saturday Evening

Reread 1 Corinthians 16:13-14. Verse 14 reads: "Let all that you do be done with love."

Read 1 Corinthians 13.

Think on God's agape love, think on His selfless love and lay your heart before Him.

He alone is the only One Who can pour out His love through His children. Cry out to Him; call on Him for His agape love to flow through you to those who are difficult and unlovable.

"Be ready, servant of Christ, for thy Master comes on a sudden, when an ungodly world least expects Him."

Friday Evening

Read 1 Corinthians 16:13-14.

Write out these verses and underline the five commands listed in these verses.

Steady is defined as: firmly fixed, supported, or balanced; not shaking or moving. It means regular, even, and continuous in development, frequency, or intensity. Steady means direct or sure in movement : unfaltering.

In light of the definition of the word steady; take some time to reflect on your life. Is there any area in your life where you have paused in your development in the Lord? Spend time before the Lord in prayer.

Look up the following verses:

Matthew 24:42; 1 Peter 5:8-9; Matthew 26:41; 1 Corinthians 15:58; Ephesians 6:10 1 Peter 4:7-8.

Lift up a prayer before His throne.

Read Psalm 4:8.

"God Hold us to that which drew us first, when the Cross was the attraction, and we wanted nothing else."

— Amy Carmichael, God's Missionary
