

FRC Group Leader

Helping people grow in Christ through relationships, Scripture, prayer, and shared life.

THE DIFFERENCE YOU MAKE

Groups help people build meaningful relationships and grow in their faith. As a Group Leader, you create a welcoming environment where people can be known, encouraged, prayed for, and challenged to become more like Christ. Your role is to guide the group and create space for people to grow together.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Create a welcoming, grace-filled, confidential environment.
- Facilitate meaningful conversation and include everyone.
- Encourage Scripture, prayer, relationships, and mutual support.
- Communicate consistently and maintain a dependable meeting rhythm.
- Welcome new members and develop shared leadership with FRC.

TYPICAL RHYTHM

- | | |
|-------------------|---|
| Frequency: | At least monthly; twice a month often works well |
| Day/Time: | Chosen with your group |
| Location: | A home, FRC, or another appropriate gathering space |

TRAINING

You Won't Lead Alone

We'll help you get started with practical training, content options, and ongoing support. You don't need to be a Bible expert—we'll help you build healthy rhythms and lead meaningful conversations.

READY TO GET STARTED?

Interested in leading a group? We'd love to talk. Contact:

Niccie Kliegl
niccie@frcoc.org
712-395-3157

WHAT SERVING LOOKS LIKE

- ✓ Setting the tone for a healthy group culture
- ✓ Listening and asking thoughtful questions
- ✓ Helping people connect Scripture with everyday life
- ✓ Encouraging people to share life, pray, and support one another