

WEDNESDAY NIGHT KIDS

Helping the next generation know God, trust Jesus, and live out their faith.

THE DIFFERENCE YOU MAKE

Kids need Christian adults who know their names, welcome them, and help them connect what they learn at church to everyday life. As a Wednesday Night Kids volunteer, you help create a safe, fun, and Christ-centered environment where children build relationships, learn from the Bible, and know they belong.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Welcome children and help them feel included.
- Join children in worship and activities.
- Encourage positive behavior and calmly redirect distractions.
- Lead and care for an assigned small group.
- Partner with leaders, volunteers, and parents.
- Follow ministry safety and communication policies.

TYPICAL SCHEDULE

Serve:	At least every other month, September–April
Arrival:	6:00 PM, when check-in begins
Finish:	7:30 PM, after cleanup and a brief check-out

TRAINING

Training Provided

We provide role-specific training, lesson plans, materials, and ongoing support. Bring a growing faith, dependability, flexibility, and a heart for building relationships with children.

WHAT SERVING LOOKS LIKE

- ✓ Welcoming each child by name
- ✓ Joining children in worship and activities
- ✓ Leading with patience and flexibility
- ✓ Helping every child feel included
