Award Components:

First preference shall be given to those who are members of Fair View United Methodist Church, Mount Mourne, North Carolina. Recipients of scholarships, or members of their immediate family, must have been members of Fairview for at least one year prior to their enrollment in college. If there are no qualified applicants from Fair View (or, if in the judgment of the Scholarship Committee, additional applicants are needed to utilize available funds), consideration shall be given to applicants from Iredell and Mecklenburg Counties. Recipients of scholarships from the Fund must also satisfy the following conditions:

- (i) Be classified (accepted to enter) an undergraduate student or presently an undergraduate student in one of the colleges outlined above.
- (ii) Have grades acceptable to their enrollment or continuation in college. Primary consideration should be given to the applicants of high moral character and demonstrated financial need.

Number of Awards:

One or more scholarships shall be awarded each year, subject to the availability of funds, to the person(s) selected by the Scholarship Committee of Fairview United Methodist Church, Mount Mourne, North Carolina.

Duration of Awards:

Scholarships are granted for one (1) year, but can be renewed for deserving students.

Scholarship Committee:

The Charge Conference of Fairview United Methodist shall elect annually a Chairperson and one other person to serve on the Scholarship Committee. A third member of the Scholarship Committee shall be appointed by the Board of the United Methodist Foundation. Under the guidelines listed above, they shall have sole responsibility to receive applications and make grants from income made available by the United Methodist Foundation. In the event that this Committee is not named, or fails to carry out its functions for three straight years, Fair View Church having been properly notified, the Foundation is authorized to make grants from the Fund in a manner consistent with the original purposes of the Fund.

Distribution of Scholarship Funds:

Distribution checks for scholarships shall be made payable directly to the college or university and to the recipient, with the endorsement of both required. Funds may be used for tuition or other expenses.

Changes to Scholarship Guidelines:

The Scholarship Committee, subject to final approval of the Board of the United Methodist Foundation, may make changes to the Scholarship Guidelines as may be in the best interest of the administration and the enhancement of the Fund so long as the basic purpose is not changed.
