

The Road to Peace
Don't Judge One Another
Romans 2, 14

Getting to Know You

1. How was your Easter?
2. Which of these songs about judging do you resonate the most with? "Man in the Mirror"—Michael Jackson; "Mean"—Taylor Swift; "Respect"—Aretha Franklin; "Who Are You"—The Who; "Just the Way You Are"—Bruno Mars; "You're So Vain"—Carly Simon

Digging Deeper

3. What are the main points Paul makes in Romans 2:1-8 regarding judgment?
4. Why is it important to understand the difference between judging others and holding others accountable?
5. How are the characteristics of compassion and judgment portrayed in Romans 2 and 14? Related, what does Romans 2 teach us about God's kindness?
6. What does Romans 2:5 teach us about having an unrepentant heart?
7. What is the main issue addressed in Romans 14:1-4 regarding disagreements among believers?

Living It Out

8. What implications do Romans 2 and 14 have for our personal actions and attitudes toward others?
9. How can adopting a self-righteous attitude be detrimental to those who need to be shown mercy?
10. How can we discern between necessary corrections and being judgmental when we see others sin?
11. In what ways could we apply the message of Romans 2 and 14 in our daily interactions in our family, work or school?
12. How can we ensure that our actions reflect Christ's love rather than a judgmental spirit in our various relationships?