

Honor One Another – Week 3

Instruct One Another

Romans 15–16

Getting to Know You

1. Who is a teacher, coach, mentor, or friend who has positively shaped your life? What made their influence meaningful?
2. When you hear the word “instruction,” do you tend to think positively or negatively? Why?
3. Have you ever received encouragement or correction from someone that truly helped you grow?

Digging Deeper

4. According to Romans 15:4 and 15:14, what blessings come from biblical instruction?
5. The sermon emphasized that believers are called to “instruct one another.” Why do you think many Christians feel unqualified or hesitant to do that?
6. Which posture of instruction stood out to you most: humility, patience, compassion, love, warning, gratitude, or treating others like family? Why?
7. What do we learn from Jesus as the ultimate example of instruction and correction?

Living It Out

8. Is there someone in your life right now who may need encouragement, guidance, or hope from you?
9. What is one practical way you can “instruct like Jesus” this week—with truth, grace, and humility?
10. How can Trinity become a place where people feel safe to grow, ask questions, struggle honestly, and receive biblical encouragement?
