A Home for troubled boys

Ps 144:10;12 It is he that giveth salvation;
That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth!

November and December

1/24/23

As I review 2022, I think about the great opportunities that my family and this ministry faced during the year. I thought of one in particular I want to share (what I can) with you today. Two of the young boys in our school went through some very personal family issues that started last summer. It completely was out of the blue with no indication that it was coming, a total shock and surprise. It is incredible the impact this had on these two boys. It is amazing how it affected their school work. Both grade point averages dropped over 10 pts with many subjects having to be repeated because of the distraction. They were very emotional many days and some days school was not our priority. The opportunity to share in this experience for me and our teacher, Mrs Ashley, was very special. We have been able to minister to them unlike the other kids. We pray this helps them see how God's love is put into shoe leather and aid in their salvation. We had the opportunity to share Christ with them like no other time.

It has been encouraging to see how God is working in young men's lives through this ministry. Please pray that God will open their spiritual eyes to see his great salvation. Also pray that this family issue will be resolved to relieve them of this burden.

These times in our country have brought new and heavy persecution to ministries like ours. Please pray God will continue to guide and grow us as we endeavor to seek and do His will.

Jeremiah 29:13

And ye shall seek me, and find me,
when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

James 1:4

But let patience have her perfect work that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

It is very clear, there is an attack on and for our children. We intend to do our part to point them to Christ and saturate them with the gospel so they have the tools to combat this attack. As always, thank you for your prayers and support of this ministry.
