

18 Marks of a Disciple who makes Disciples.

1. Personal Testimony

- He has prepared a written testimony, including at least one Scripture. The testimony will include:
 - > What my life was like before getting saved;
 - > How did I become saved;
 - > What my life is like after being saved.
- He should try writing down his personal testimony just the way he would tell it to an unbeliever. He should make the story of his conversion so clear that another person hearing it would know how to receive Christ.

2. Assurance of Salvation

- He will be able confidently to express to another person his own assurance of salvation based on his personal faith in Christ and one or more promises from God's Word.

3. Reading the Word & Learning Basic Doctrines/Theology

- He will systematically read his Bible and take specific notes about what he should / should not do. He should take notes on verses that give glory to God (i.e., worship). In addition, he should carefully study a book on doctrine/theology or even use the XL Ministries workbook called Becoming a Biblical Reader.

4. Prayer

- He demonstrates a consistent prayer life by praying daily.

5. Scripture Memory

- He regularly memorizes Scripture and maintains adequate review.

6. Meditation on the Word

- He intentionally works meditation on the Word of God into his daily routine.

7. Application of the Word

- He demonstrates a desire to apply the Word of God.

8. Church Life

- He faithfully attends church and is involved in service there.
- He is actively involved in a Discipleship Hour, HFG, and other important classes or conferences.
- He is dedicated and actively/regularly serves in ministry.
- He has a deep desire to make disciples.
