

HFG Questions for
“Introduction to James”
(James 1:1)

1. Would you consider yourself a slave of God? Do you think it’s necessary? Can a person be a Christian and not be God’s doulos? What does God say to those who don’t do His will? (Mat. 7:21-23; Luke 6:46)

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

2. A businessman once asked his Bible study group, “How can you tell if you have a servant attitude?” The reply came back, “By the way you react when you are treated like one.” It’s not easy to cultivate an attitude like that. But servanthood is one of the keys to growing in Christlikeness. How did Jesus describe His own ministry in Mark 10:45?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

3. How does James’ introduction show a high and lofty view of Jesus?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

4. Do you have a high view of the Savior, and how does that show itself in your everyday life?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

5. Ephesians 1:15, Colossians 1:4, and Matthew 25:31-46 all have one theme. What is it?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

6. In Matthew 5:11-12 Jesus calls us to rejoice when we are persecuted for His sake. Why?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

7. Have you ever thought about your epitaph? If so, what would you want said of you?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---