All Things New

The North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists is joining the global OneVoice27 initiative through a public campaign called All Things New. Launched on September 5, 2026, and running until September 2027, the movement marks 2,000 years since Christ began His public ministry.

The campaign focuses on four main goals: praying, serving, sharing Jesus, and following Him through discipleship.

One of the focuses is to read Ellen White's book "The Desire of Ages" over the next year. If you are interested, a copy of the "Desire of Ages Reading Plan" is available in the foyer or contact the church office for a pdf of the reading plan.

Today's Sabbath Rest Ends: 7:27 PM ~ Next week it begins at: 7:16 PM

Church Financials-at-a-Glance through August 31, 2026

Monthly Goal:	$ 19,983	YTD	$ 159,864
Received:	$ 12,855		$ 107,203
Over/(Short)	$ (7,128)		$ (52,661)

Note: Tithe money does not fund our monthly cost to open and run our local church. Your financial support of our local church budget (operating expenses) is what keeps our immediate church family thriving and our doors open. While tithe is sent to the conference office to support the global church, 100% of your local church budget offerings stay right here at East Salem Church. These funds directly cover our day-to-day operational expenses, including utilities, building maintenance, property insurance, office administration, and cleaning. More importantly, giving to the Local Church Budget breathes life into our local ministries, funding our Sabbath School programs, youth and children's ministries, community outreach initiatives, audio-visual needs, and local church socials. Thank you for your faithful freewill offerings on the 1st and 3rd Sabbath's of each month and your monthly donations specifically marked Local Church Budget which allow our church to remain a warm, functional, and impactful place to worship each week. Prayerfully consider giving to Local Church Budget.
