Choral Anthem | Faith of Our Mothers -Sally Ann Morris (b. 1952)- | Trinity Sanctuary Choir Dewilla Hooper, Clarinet

Faith of our mothers, living still, through gifts derided, calls denied, striving undaunted through the years, till bolted doors have opened wide: faith of our mothers, firm and strong, voices long silenced rise in song!
Faith of our sisters, serving still, with towel and basin, cup and bread, tending earth's needs with patient care, till hurts are healed and hungers fed: faith of our sisters' art and skill, loving with heart and mind and will.
Faith of our daughters, hoping still, venturing pathways yet untrod, partners in witness to the world, seeking a living, moving God: faith of our daughters, bold and true, restless till Christ makes all things new.
Faith of our families, growing still, varied in gender, class, and race, patchwork of patterns, shapes, and hues, vast as the mantle of God's grace: faith of our families, growing in faith, we honor you in life and death.

Scripture Lesson | Revelation 7: 9-17 | Andrea Cutlip

One: This is the Word of God for the people of God.
All: Thanks be to God. Amen.

Sermon | Extravagant Generosity of God | Rev. Murphy

Remembering the Saints | Rev. Murphy

The candles lit at All Saints Worship observances are an acknowledgement that our loved ones in Christ are not gone forever.
The light that was lit in their hearts when they came into the family of God continues to shine in the presence of God.

Presider: On this Day of the Saints,
we thank God for those who hallowed this earth by their prayers and by the way they walked in the light of God. Let us remember the giants of faith on whose shoulders we stand.
People: Abraham, Deborah, David, Jacob, Ruth, Esther.

Presider: On this Day of the Saints,
we thank God for those who, empowered by the Holy Spirit, established God's church, giving life, blood, soul, and strength that we might have a right to the tree of life.
People: Jesus, Mary, Paul, Lydia, Martin Luther, John Wesley.

Presider: On this Day of the Saints,
we thank God for those whose belief in the God of love brought us to know the open arms of Jesus.
Let us remember these parents, grandparents, teachers and caregivers who taught us about you.
You may name aloud or silently a saint in your life.

Presider: On this Day of the Saints,
we thank God for those we love who have departed from this earth.
Let us remember these blessed ones.
You may name aloud or silently a saint in your life.

Presider: On this Day of the Saints,
we thank God for those who built up our church, who served your people, who embodied Christ, and whom we miss this day.
(After the bell tolls for each name, remain in silent prayer for the saint and his or her family and friends)

James Randolph Brown Jo Ann Wilson Nichols

Presider: Let us thank God together:
People: Merciful God, we thank you for the saints.

Offertory | Interlude -Mark Hayes (b. 1953)- | David Rigsby

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.

The Service of Holy Communion

Invitation to the Table

Presider: Christ our Lord invites to his table all who love him, who earnestly repent of their sin and seek to live in peace with one another. Therefore, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

Confession & Pardon

People: Merciful God, we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart. We have failed to be an obedient church. We have not done your will, we have broken your law, we have rebelled against your love, we have not loved our neighbors, and we have not heard the cry of the needy. Forgive us we pray. Free us for joyful obedience, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Presider: Hear the good news: Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven! Glory to God. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, God Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth: God of Abraham and Sarah, God of Miriam and Moses, God of Joshua and Deborah, God of the prietsts and the prophets, God of Mary and Joseph, God of the apostles and the martyrs, God of our mothers and fathers, God of our children to all generations.

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your son Jesus Christ.
By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from sin and death and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself us for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to the disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving. as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine.

Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the whole world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood.

Renew our communion with your saints, especially those we have named before your in our hearts.
Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, strengthen us to run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the Pioneer and Perfecter of our faith.

By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at his heavenly banquet.

Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.
