MIDDLE SCHOOL-Large group lesson “Unpredictable”

Lesson Summary (Acts 3-4:4)

In Acts 3, Peter and John meet a man who has been unable to walk since birth, and instead of giving him the money the crippled man asks for, God gives him something far greater—healing through the power of Jesus. Pastor Cam’s lesson taught that quick fixes are not long-term solutions, that we should let God give us what we need rather than always demanding what we want, and that we should give God the credit for what He does in our lives. Peter then uses the miracle to point people toward Jesus, and many who heard his message believed. A transformed life can inspire other people to follow Jesus, just as this man's transformed life helped lead to the growth of the church to about 5,000 believers.

HIGH SCHOOL-Small group lesson “What God Starts Can’t Be Stopped”

Lesson Summary (Acts 5:27-33; 38-39):

The apostles boldly continued telling people about Jesus, even after the religious leaders ordered them to stop. The leaders tried to shut down the apostles, but God’s work could not be stopped because the message of Jesus was bigger than their opposition. When God starts something, people may try to resist it, but they cannot stop what God intends to accomplish.
