Enter Into the Joy:

Stewardship Dedication Sunday
Sunday, November 8th

Our 2027 Stewardship Campaign invites us to Enter Into the Joy of sharing in God's work through Maxwell Street Presbyterian Church. Every day, our congregation makes a difference in the lives of others through worship, education, music, fellowship, and service to our neighbors. All of this is possible because of your faithful generosity.

Please note that Dedication Sunday has been moved from November 15 to November 8. I will be away on November 15th as we gather with Lauren's family to celebrate her mom's life. This change will allow me to be present as we celebrate our shared commitment to the ministry God has called us to do together. I appreciate your understanding. We hope you will bring your pledge card to worship on November 8 as we dedicate our gifts and ourselves to God's work in the coming year. If you are unable to attend, you can return your pledge card to the church office. Every pledge, regardless of size, makes a difference and helps us plan faithfully for the year ahead. Jesus reminds us that faithfulness brings us into the joy of God. As we consider what we can give, I hope we will also remember the joy we receive through giving. Together, let us Enter Into the Joy! - Matt

Advent at Maxwell Street

Draw Near

This Advent, I have borrowed the title of Rev. Terri McDowell's Advent Devotional for the theme of our season. I regularly turn to several resources for inspiration for liturgy, and her writing is certainly on the list. The full title of the devotional is "Lighting the Advent Path with Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love," and the cover features a small boy holding a lantern over his head as he walks along a dark path.

My mind immediately turns to those words from John's gospel that we read on Christmas Eve: "The light shone in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it."

The season of Advent is an opportunity to remind ourselves of, and cling to, those things that shine and shimmer with God's love when the world around us can otherwise seem so bleak. The light reminds us that God's love is drawing near, often just when we need it most.

I know that the darkness can seem overwhelming at times, but I look forward to the glimmers of light that I know we will see this season at Maxwell Street. We will sing old, familiar carols, hear comforting and encouraging scripture passages, watch, with joy in our hearts, the children's pageant, and share gifts of kindness and love with our neighbors who need it most.

I hope you will find joy in these glimmers of light, too. I hope you will take the time to read Terri's daily devotional with us, join us for worship, and let the light of God's love shine in your heart.

Let us prepare for God to draw near.

Grace and Peace,
Matt

Sunday, November 15th, 9:30am
3rd Space Sunday (aka Donut Sunday) happens on the 3rd Sunday of each month in the Fellowship Hall hosted by the MSPC Welcoming Committee. We hope you can join us for a morning of donuts, coffee, and fellowship!

MSPC Young Adults

Thursday, November 12th
Our 22–49-year-oldish (we don't card!) young adults — both single and partnered — love connecting and deepening their faith together. You'll often find them sharing meals at local spots, pitching in with mission projects, and helping lead church programs. Our Young Adults group will meet on November 12th at 7pm at Emma and Nick's home. For the meeting address, to RSVP, or for more specifics, please email Emma at ehs1031@gmail.com.

Thanksgiving Dinner and Annual Meeting

Sunday, November 22, after worship
In the Presbyterian Church (USA), congregations are to hold an annual meeting to elect ruling elders and deacons and to approve proposed changes to the pastor's terms of call. The 2026 Annual Meeting will be held following the Thanksgiving Dinner on November 22nd in the Fellowship Hall. In addition to the official business, we'll also learn who this year's recipients of Endowment Grants are.

Hanging of the Greens

Sunday, November 22, after worship
We encourage anyone who wants to help to stay after the Annual Meeting to participate in this time–honored tradition of decorating the church in preparation for the Advent Season.

COMMUNITY RESOURCES

National Family Caregivers Month

November is National Family Caregivers Month, a time to recognize and honor the more than 53 million Americans who provide unpaid care to family members, friends, and neighbors living with chronic illnesses, disabilities, or age-related needs.

A couple of months ago, we held a training session at Maxwell Street to help us become a more Dementia-Friendly Congregation. During that gathering, we were reminded of both the gifts and burdens that caregivers experience, and we committed to better serving those living with dementia and those who care for them. One of the most common challenges family caregivers experience is isolation. As caregiving responsibilities grow, opportunities for social connection often shrink. Appointments, medications, and daily care needs take priority over hobbies, friendships, and time for rest. Over time, these demands can lead to emotional exhaustion, decision fatigue, chronic stress, and a decline in a caregiver's overall well-being.

This is one of the reasons communities of faith like Maxwell Street have such an important role to play. Having people who understand the challenges of caregiving, whether through personal or professional experience, can provide both practical help and emotional encouragement. Sometimes that support might mean offering a meal, running an errand, or providing a few hours of respite. Other times, it might be as simple as listening, checking in, or making sure someone knows they haven't been forgotten. Caregiving is an expression of love, but it was never meant to be carried alone. In many ways, the support of a caring community is what makes it possible to sustain that love through the most difficult seasons of life.

This month, let's be especially attentive to the caregivers in our community. Let's look for opportunities to support them, express our gratitude for their faithful service, and remind them that they, too, deserve care.

Guatemala Mission Trip

July 10-17, 2027

Porch de Salomon has hosted short-term mission teams in Guatemala since 2006, and in recent years, over 20 trips per year! Most teams primarily focus on building small concrete block homes for impoverished indigenous families. No previous building experience is required to be part of our mission team! Teams also help staff free village medical or dental clinics, and work alongside Porch locals to host fun, flexible, afternoon Bible schools in the villages we are visiting. This mission trip is open to high school students and will be $500. Scholarships are available if needed and deposits are due by December 31st Please contact Rob with any questions (rob@maxpres.org). You can register by scanning the QRC to the right.

SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

Our stated October 2nd meeting was called to Order at 7:00pm and we opened with prayer and reflection about autumn based on a poem by recently deceased poet Wendell Berry. We then received new members Henry and Honey Johnson.

We then welcomed Melanie Tyner-Wilson and Megan Russell, who shared their personal experiences of working with individuals diagnosed with autism. They discussed the challenges they faced finding inclusive churches and the negative experiences they had with various religious communities. They suggested many small steps, like involving individuals in choir, communion, or other church roles, and emphasized the value of creating welcoming environments. We will continue to look for ways to make our space friendlier and more inclusive. Thank you to Peter Perry for organizing this helpful educational opportunity.

Matt provided updates on several topics during the meeting. He discussed the potential ordination of Bailey, which will be examined at the November 13-14 Presbytery meeting, noting this could be the first LGBTQ+ ordination in our presbytery.

The Trustees also addressed concerns about the elevator project, explaining that three main issues are causing delays: fire code requirements for the security system, electrical needs for separate circuits, and HVAC requirements for the mechanical room.

The Worship Committee requested that repairs not be done during the holidays, and the Trustees are continuing to obtain quotes and plan for work to begin after December 27th.

Matt reported that the trunk-or-treat event scheduled for October 17th has generated about 13 car registrations so far, with a goal of 20 participants.

The Session approved use of Presbyterian Peacemaking funds totaling $846.79 to support the visioning process. The group also discussed the possibility of creating fellowship opportunities for empty nesters, retirees, and seniors, with suggestions to explore daytime book groups and small-group dinners.

The meeting adjourned a little after 8:30 PM. The next stated meeting of the Session will be November 2nd at 7:00 pm in the church library.

As part of our ongoing Stewardship campaign, "Enter Into The Joy", congregation members and resident Mr. Fix-It's, Warren Waxham and Bill Smith humorously shared about their experiences in keeping our church building safe and secure for us to continue worshiping within. We will be celebrating Dedication Sunday on November 8th. Learn more on Page 3 of this edition of Maxwell in Motion.

MISSION

Random Act of Kindness

Food Drive for CRCKY

This month, we will be collecting shelf stable, non-perishable food items for our neighbors at CRCKY (Community Response Coalition of Kentucky). Items requested for donation include, flour, sugar, salt, spices, rice, pasta, canned fruit or vegetables, boxed meals, cereals, or shelf-stable milk products. All items can be brought to the Church Office during office hours.

Good News from CRCKY

The US Immigration System has some unique features, including rules and regulations about who can help immigrants file for various immigration benefits (e.g., green cards, citizenship, work permits, etc.) and who can represent immigrants in Immigration Court. Lawyers can do any of this work, but so can some non-lawyers.

There is a rigorous training program requiring courses, passing tests, and observing immigration court proceedings. The US Department of Justice manages this program by accepting and reviewing applications and granting or denying accreditation. A non-lawyer can apply and, if approved, can represent clients with immigration filings with the Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS).

Dominique Olbert, Executive Director of CRCKY, was approved as a fully accredited DOJ representative in October 2026! She is the second person in Kentucky to obtain this status. This broadens the field of immigration work CRCKY can do, especially for those in detention and those in removal proceedings. And it couldn't have happened at a better time. ICE claims to have arrested 51,000 immigrants in August, including children. The need for legal representation is exploding; CRCKY has taken one small step to address that need.

E7 Christmas Shop

Fellowship Hall

Once again we will be hosting the E7 Christmas Shop on Sunday, December 6th from 1:00-3:00pm. It's not too early to sing Christmas Carols and gather new or "gently used" items for the children to purchase with their $50 voucher for their family members. We need gifts for adult men and women, teens and children. We also need volunteers to help set up on Saturday, December 5th, from 3:00-5:00pm and Sunday, December 6th, from 12:30-3:30pm to assist the children as they choose that special gift for up to 10 family members. We also need volunteers to wrap these gifts. This year we are expanding and inviting a few additional schools to shop. Our goal is to have 50 children. To volunteer, please contact Pam Boldt at 859-619-7737 or email at joeandpamboldt@gmail.com.

Clothing Closet Update!

Ashlee's Clothing Closet has finally reached completion, and she's deeply grateful to Dan and Ann Farrer for their generous assistance in installing the shirt shelves on the wall. Their support made it possible to finish the clothing room renovation. Ashlee is thrilled about opening in November and warmly welcomes donations of winter clothing and household items to fill the what-not wall.
