Cover Image

The Cover Image is a quilted banner created in celebration of World Communion Day. This six-foot banner at the denominational offices in Louisville was created to illustrate the Peacemaking Offering for World Communion Sunday on October 5, 1997. This design was originally drawn in oil pastels by Dorothea B. Kennedy and was translated into fabric by Gloiela Yau Dolak.

World Communion Sunday

October 4, 2026

World Communion Sunday turns 90-years-old this year. Created in 1936 at Shadyside Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh, the goal was to highlight the oneness of the body of Christ, reminding believers that they are connected across cultures, languages, and denominations. On World Communion Sunday, we collect one of three annual special offerings to the work of the PC(USA). Gifts to this Offering support the causes/ministries of racial justice, gender justice, peacemaking, global witness, and ecumenical and interfaith relations. These ministries work to ensure all God's people have their place at the Table of Grace. You can either make a gift to the church indicating that it is for the World Communion Offering or by going online to <https://pcusa.org/give-worldcommunion>.

Children's Sabbath Sunday

October 18, 2026

What is Children's Sabbath Sunday? A service of worship or prayers during which the divine mandate to listen to, follow, nurture, and protect children calls us to act with an ecclesial urgency in responding to the needs of children today. While celebrating children and the gift they are to our community will certainly be part of this day, it's also a sobering day. We remember and seek to better understand the disparities facing millions of children in our country and the injustices that we too often leave unchallenged.

Reformation Sunday

October 25, 2026

In Western Europe, the authority of the Catholic Church remained largely unquestioned until the Renaissance in the fifteenth century. Around 1450, the invention of the printing press in Germany made it possible for the masses to read the Bible and other religious texts, enabling the discovery of religious thinkers who began to challenge the Church. The term "Reformation" is used to describe the series of changes in Western Christendom between the fourteenth and seventeenth centuries.

STEWARDSHIP 2026

Enter Into the Joy

Stewardship season is a time when we, as a congregation, reflect on the connection between faith and generosity and are invited to make a financial commitment, or pledge, toward the church's ministry for the coming year. This year's Stewardship Campaign is called "Enter Into the Joy".

The name comes from a parable in which a servant has been trustworthy and faithful with what has been entrusted to him. When the master returns and sees what the servant has done, he speaks those familiar words: "Well done, good and faithful servant."

What we may not remember is what comes next: "You have been trustworthy in a few things; I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master."

Enter into the joy.

I love that as an invitation to stewardship. It reminds us that stewardship is about more than meeting a budget or paying the church's bills. It is about discovering the joy that comes from using what God has entrusted to us—our resources, our abilities, our time, and our lives—to participate in God's work in the world. Throughout the season, we'll hear from several Maxwell Street members about the joy they have discovered through giving and serving. I hope their stories will encourage all of us to think about where we find joy in the life and ministry we share.

Our Stewardship Season begins October 11.

Come and enter into the joy!

"Joy is the reward, really, of seeking to give joy to others. When you show compassion, when you show caring, when you show love to others, do things for others, in a wonderful way you have a deep joy that you can get in no other way."

-- Desmond Tutu, The Book of Joy: Lasting Happiness in a Changing World

All Church Retreat

November 6-7 (Youth will stay through Nov. 8th)

"Enter into the joy of your master." — Matthew 25:21

Joy is not always something we can manufacture, and it is not the same thing as happiness. Sometimes joy surprises us. Sometimes it grows slowly through faithfulness, generosity, community, and the discovery that our lives are connected to something larger than ourselves.

Our time together on this retreat will be an opportunity to slow down, pay attention, and reflect on where joy is present in our lives and in the life we share as a church. We will think together about what God has entrusted to us, how we are using those gifts, and what it might mean to "enter into the joy" that comes from participating in God's work.

Come ready to rest, reflect, talk, listen, laugh, and enjoy one another's company. My hope is not that we leave with all the answers, but that we leave a little more aware of the joy God is already inviting us to enter.

Fees for Food and Lodging TBD based on the type of lodging selected. Fee not to exceed $45 per adult per night. Youth and Children will be less. If you have any questions, please contact Matt (matt@maxpres.org). Register for the Retreat via the QRC to the left.

SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

It was a busy September Session meeting! Wes Bullock offered the opening reflection and prayer, reflecting a little on a recent visit to Montana, Edward Abbey's Desert Solitaire, and Kathleen Norris's Dakota. Wes helped us think about how we tend to carry our attitudes toward community with us wherever we go. Even solitude does not necessarily free us from our need for one another.

I shared an article from the Presbytery on ways congregations can more intentionally support older adults experiencing increased needs. One of the article's main suggestions was to form a small, coordinated circle of care so that support is consistent rather than falling on one or two people. We shared and discussed various prayer concerns for congregation members. The previous minutes were approved, and Session also approved updates to the church membership records.

Budget and Stewardship reported that giving is currently ahead of budget. We also discussed a significant HVAC expense related to the sanctuary. Two sanctuary units needed new compressors. Session approved using $19,629.97 from the Major Maintenance Fund to replace them, leaving approximately $9,600 in the fund.

An additional HVAC unit in the office failed and will cost approximately $14,000 to replace. Session agreed to cover the expense through the Operating Budget, which will add to a significant deficit in the Building Maintenance line for the 2026 fiscal year. Committees were reminded to begin reviewing their anticipated budget needs for 2027.

Requests to the Endowment Committee are due October 10, and the committee is encouraging committees and ministries to think creatively about significant projects that might benefit from endowment support. Bailey's campus ministry continues to grow, with an average attendance of approximately eight students. Session approved the wedding of Laura Zolman and Matt Gomez to take place at Maxwell Street on Saturday, September 19. Updates were also shared regarding Bible studies, Christian formation opportunities, and the upcoming stewardship campaign.

I raised the question of how Maxwell Street might better serve empty nesters, retirees, and older adults through Christian formation and fellowship. I provided information about what other congregations are doing and asked Session members to have some informal conversations over the next month with people in this stage of life. The goal is simply to listen and learn what kinds of programs, gatherings, or opportunities might be meaningful.

I proposed a six- to nine-month discernment and visioning process regarding the Blevins House and church property. I asked Session for permission to form a group of approximately seven people who can help us think carefully about the future of the property, possible ministry uses, and how the space might best support Maxwell Street's mission in the years ahead. Session approved the formation of the visioning group.

At our next meeting on October 5, Melanie Tyner Wilson will join us to talk about ministry with people with special needs.

Requests Due October 10th

MISSION

Ronald McDonald House

Friday, October 23rd, from 5-8pm

Ronald McDonald House is a place for families to stay free of charge who have a child currently hospitalized at UK Children's Hospital. RMH provides these families with private rooms, meals, snacks and laundry facilities. The Mission Committee has signed on to help prep, cook and serve dinner on Friday, October 23rd. We have space for 8 volunteers. The RMH chef will provide the ingredients and instructions for the meal and the Mission Committee will cover the cost of ingredients. You will prepare a meal for 50 guests and package leftovers for families who may be at the hospital during the mealtime. For info, contact Pam Boldt (859-619-7737).

Random Act of Kindness

Ronald McDonald House Pantry

Please check out the RMH wishlist to replenish staples in their pantry for our October Random Act of Kindness. Items can be dropped off in the church office (please mark RAK) or ordered on their Amazon Wish List and they will be shipped directly to RMH. You can find their Wishlist at the QRC to the right. The RMHC Pantry is used by parents and families staying at the house. They can grab food or snacks for themselves at any time of day or night.

Clothing Closet Updates

The Clothing Closet is currently closed to clients for re-organization. Ashlee has been hard at work to make the Closet more organized, easy to navigate for our clients, and simple for our volunteers to restock. The Closet will reopen to clients in November.

Deck the Halls

Fellowship Hall

Once again we will be hosting the E-7 Christmas Shop on Sunday, December 6th from 1:00-3:00pm. It's not too early to sing Christmas Carols and gather new or "gently used" items for the children to purchase with their $50 voucher for their family members. We need gifts for adult men and women, teens and children. We also need volunteers to help set up on Saturday, December 5th, from 3:00-5:00pm and Sunday, December 6th, from 12:30-3:30pm to assist the children as they choose that special gift for up to 10 family members. We also need volunteers to wrap these gifts. This year we are expanding and inviting a few additional schools to shop. Our goal is to have 50 children. Please consider helping to make this day special for the children and their families. To volunteer, please call or text Pam Boldt at 859-619-7737 or email at joeandpamboldt@gmail.com.

Porch de Salomon

Donations Requested

The summer of 2023, I visited Panajachel Guatemala with youth group and last summer I returned with my mom and other members of Maxwell Street. These trips have made a large impact on my life and have opened my eyes to a new culture and their different sets of needs. This November, my mom and I will return to Guatemala to work on a new home for a family in need. Porch de Salomon is a non-profit that provides amazing housing and health care outreach to those in need in Panajachel, but they don't have enough funds to also provide them with smaller essentials for the families, such as vitamins and OTC medication we so easily access in America. I am asking for donations for the families we will serve this November. As important as antibiotic ointment and hydrocortisone cream are, toys like balls, chalk, and bubbles are just as essential, as these tangibles give us the opportunity to connect and experience joy with the children. Any donations are greatly appreciated and can be dropped off at the Church Office at any time. If you have any additional questions please talk to me or my mom, Julia. Thank you, Anne-Claire Linscott.

Scan here to view the list of items requested for Porch de Salomon. If you purchase items for donation, please get them to Anne-Claire or Julia Linscott.
