Pastor Roy's Sermon on Hebrews 6:1-20
(November 25, 2026)
—Below are questions from that lesson to further our understanding—

1. The sermon challenges us to move beyond the elementary foundations of faith toward maturity -- in what specific areas of your spiritual life have you remained on 'milk' when you should have moved on to solid food, and what is holding you back?
2. Terry Stout offered a woman on the edge of despair a pin that simply said 'There's Hope' -- how have you been a tangible bearer of hope to someone in a desperate moment, and what does it mean to carry that responsibility as a believer?
3. The writer of Hebrews warns against becoming 'dull of hearing,' suggesting that repeated exposure to the Word without application leads to spiritual stagnation -- how do you personally ensure that what you hear on Sunday is being lived out by Monday?
4. Hebrews 6 describes people who were enlightened, tasted the heavenly gift, and shared in the Holy Spirit, yet still fell away -- how does this sobering reality shape the way you approach your own faith and your responsibility not to resist the Holy Spirit's work in your life?
5. The sermon makes the point that true apostasy treats Christ's sacrifice as insufficient to cover one's sin -- in what subtle ways might believers today, without realizing it, functionally live as though the cross is not enough for their particular struggles or failures?
6. God swore an oath to Abraham by Himself because there was no greater authority by which to swear -- what does it mean for your daily trust in God to know that His promises are backed by His own unchangeable character and that it is impossible for Him to lie?
7. The sermon uses the image of land that receives rain but only produces thorns and thistles as a picture of a heart that hears the Word but remains unfruitful -- what conditions in your own life might be functioning like thorns, choking out the growth God intends for you?
8. Paul's words in Philippians 3 describe pressing on and straining forward, suggesting that spiritual maturity requires active, intentional effort -- what does it practically look like for you to 'press on toward the prize' in your current season of life?
9. The sermon describes Jesus as both our forerunner and our eternal High Priest, one who walked the road to Calvary before us -- how does the reality that Jesus has already gone ahead of you into eternity change the way you face suffering, uncertainty, or spiritual warfare today?
10. The anchor of the soul described in Hebrews 6 holds believers fast against every wind of false teaching and deception -- in a culture of instant gratification and shifting truth, what spiritual disciplines or anchoring practices keep you firmly connected to the unchanging hope set before you?
