

5-MIN DISCIPLESHIP PATHWAY ASSESSMENT

- It can be important to know which “next step” you should take. Below is a quick assessment that walks you through 5 steps of spiritual development. The assessment should help you identify your step of spiritual development. It is not a perfect assessment, but it might give you an idea of where you are with God and what next step you can take.

Instructions:

- Put a “Check Mark” on each statement if the whole statement is true for you right now.
- Go with your gut and don’t overthink. If you need more information on a question, scroll down to the category descriptions below.
- Tally checks at the bottom.
- Your primary stage will be the last category you get at least three checkmarks in.

Assessment Questions:

Investigator Step

1. ____ I have questions or skepticism about faith and I am exploring what being a Christian is about.
2. ____ I mainly attend or observe church as a spectator/seeker rather than a committed participant.
3. ____ I have not decided to personally trust Jesus as my Savior (or I don’t even know what that means), but I am investigating more about who Jesus is.
4. ____ I am struggling with personal pains or issues that keep me from surrendering my life to Jesus as my savior.

Believer Step

1. ____ I have recently professed faith in Jesus as my Savior.
2. ____ I have recently been or am looking to get baptized (or I was baptized as an infant but have recently trusted Jesus as Savior).

3. ____ At this point, I might not know a ton about God, but I know I'm forgiven for my sins because of Jesus, and I'm grateful for that.
4. ____ I am starting basic Bible reading/prayer, or I want to get started.

Engager Step

1. ____ I regularly engage in church worship services and community groups, or I'm being disciplined.
2. ____ I am starting to discover how I can serve others in the church.
3. ____ I have started to read my Bible and pray regularly.
4. ____ I am building godly habits/disciplines and working to overcome sin patterns in my life.

Ambassador Step

1. ____ I am leading, mentoring, or discipling others at church in a ministry or in a one-on-one setting.
2. ____ I regularly look for opportunities to share the gospel wherever I go. My life is in service to God. I am growing in a deeper understanding of Him.
3. ____ I am aware of areas in my life where I am prone to sin, and have an intentional plan to actively fight against my sin nature.
4. ____ One of the major focuses of my prayer life is seeing others come to Christ and how God can use me in that process.

Multiplier Step

1. ____ I not only disciple others but also help equip them to teach or disciple others in their lives. I champion and train others to lead.
2. ____ I am focused on building a godly or discipleship legacy and encouraging others to live on mission.
3. ____ I hate sin, but I still sin. I seek to repent quickly and grow from it. I do this because I want to be closer to Christ, which changes my heart. I'm aware of sin's impact on my life, my walk with God, my relationships with others, and my leadership. I long to humbly live as an example of Christ's love and grace.

4. ____ My prayers are focused not just on seeing others come to Christ, but on how I can encourage and equip others to lead people to Christ. My prayers for the gospel to spread have a local and global focus.
