Unity and Diversity

FOLD PACKET

"We are His people, the sheep of His pasture"

PSALM 100:3

Celebrating leaders whose service strengthens the body and reflects the character of Christ.

BOLD FOR THE FOLD

Recognizing persons who have exhibited great risk for the body of Frisco Bible Church and the fulfillment of its biblical mission.

GOOD SHEPHERDING

Recognizing persons who have consistently represented Jesus Christ in ministry at Frisco Bible Church.

BOLD FOR THE FOLD

Jason Wayne

B

Jason has stepped out of his comfort zone and is leading courageously. He has been discipling the men during our men's zero hour class. He has also boldly taken the reins to facilitate our Wednesday morning men's group, while occasionally rotating to teach the Sunday morning Student Ministry group. His passion for following Jesus and his desire to lead others to do the same is an example to all of us to actively pursue living out God's will.

GOOD SHEPHERDING

Becky Geise

G

Becky has served as our permanent sub in Student Ministry faithfully for the past year. She steps into the needs of small groups in the absence of their normal leaders, always willing to help and connect with our female students. She has served as the nurse at camp for the past two years, and this year, we put her skills to the max. She serves faithfully as both a reliable sub and the best summer camp nurse ever. Absolutely goated.

Leadership Lessons

01

What would you say are the three most important qualities or characteristics a person needs in order to grow as a leader?

02

What about the other side of the coin? What qualities or characteristics are most important for a leader to have to help others develop and grow?

03

You have worked with, and led, people from a wide variety of backgrounds. How do you encourage unity among people who are very diverse, have strong opinions, are great leaders, and don't agree on everything?

04

If you were having coffee with one of our leaders and only had time to share one principle or nugget with them, what would you most want them to fully grasp?

Dr. George Hillman

Dr. Hillman has a passion for education, spiritual formation, and leadership development. He came to Dallas Theological Seminary with years of ministry experience in churches and parachurch organizations in Texas and Georgia. He is a rabid college football fan and loves good barbeque. He and his wife have one grown daughter.

Be Part of What God is Doing Here and Around the World

Mission Spotlight:

Bruce Crossman,
ESL Conversations
Building relationships and sharing hope through language

1. For those who may not be familiar, can you briefly share what ESL Conversations is and what happens during a typical gathering?
2. Are you a certified ESL teacher? What led you personally to get involved in this ministry?
3. Can you share a story of how ESL Conversations has helped you build relationships and offer hope to someone through language?

Elders' Report

1 Timothy 5:20-21

20 "Publicly rebuke those who sin, so that the rest will be afraid. 21 I solemnly charge you before God and Christ Jesus and the elect angels to observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing out of favoritism."

5 years ago, AJ Rinaldi, one of our pastors, sinned. He became inebriated, which is unacceptable (Eph. 5:18). While under the influence, he flirtatiously texted a woman who is not his wife – a wrong that incurs judgment (Heb. 13:4), especially for a theologian/teacher (Jam. 3:1).

Upon revelation of this sin, the Elders and pastors took immediate action:

1. Pastor AJ is on a leave of absence. Over at least 4 months, he will be walking through a rigorous restoration process.
2. The Elders are in the midst of an investigation to discern the full parameters of any other disqualifying sins.
3. We all need to pray for the full restoration of our brother, who appears to be a contrite and willing partner in this process.

Galatians 6:1-10

"Brothers and sisters, if someone is overtaken in any wrongdoing, you who are spiritual, restore such a person with a gentle spirit, watching out for yourselves so that you also won't be tempted. 2 Carry one another's burdens; in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. 3 For if anyone considers himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. 4 Let each person examine his own work, and then he can take pride in himself alone, and not compare himself with someone else. 5 For each person will have to carry his own load.

6 Let the one who is taught the word share all his good things with the teacher. 7 Don't be deceived: God is not mocked. For whatever a person sows he will also reap, 8 because the one who sows to his flesh will reap destruction from the flesh, but the one who sows to the Spirit will reap eternal life from the Spirit. 9 Let us not get tired of doing good, for we will reap at the proper time if we don't give up. 10 Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us work for the good of all, especially for those who belong to the household of faith."

Let's keep making Disciples

FB Kids

Along with our Sunday morning team working hard to share the love of Christ with the young souls in class, our Awana, Trail Life, and AHG leaders have kicked off the school year in full swing. Please pray for our children's ministry leaders as they care for the kids and teach the Gospel. Pray for the hearts of the children to trust the Lord.

FB Students

We had a very successful Good Neighbor Labor. The students worked hard and raised a hefty sum for their summer camp fees. Thank you, Frisco Bible, for providing valuable work for them to complete. Please continue to pray for strength and wisdom for our leaders as they diligently help our young people learn to walk with the Lord.

Winter Retreat is January 8-10. Please register your students, invite your friends, and pray for the students going!

The Czech Missions Team

The Czech Missions Team accomplished great work teaching the students English and sharing the love of Christ. Visit the Mission's web page to read about their adventures.

Please pray for the team as they rest and recuperate. Pray for students who spent time with the team - that they remember the Truth they heard and for the Spirit to move in their hearts so that they may follow Jesus.
