Steadfast God, we give thanks that you are working to bring all things together for good by your love. You know us fully, as those called by your purpose, and have revealed your love to us through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, you call us to be a force for good in the world. As we offer our commitments, strengthen our bond with you and with one another. Deepen our desire to share your abundant love and goodness with all people, and bless our giving so that, together, we may be empowered to do all the good we can in your name and for your glory. Amen.
