INGREDIENTS FOR A HEALTHY
CHURCH LESSON 3
COMMUNICATION

For a church to be strong and healthy, it must have clear communication. The church simply cannot function without communication. Every part of the church's work involves communication (evangelism, edification, benevolence, worship). Without communication, the members cannot work collectively as one body. Instead, they will become a collection of disconnected and ineffective parts.

*The key to communication in the body of Christ is to say the right things in the right ways. In other words, we must speak the truth in love as Scripture directs us in Ephesians 4:14-16.

What Does It Mean To Speak The Truth In _____
-The _____ of our communication must be truth.
-The _____ and _____ of our communication must be love.

We Need To Communicate.
-We must clearly communicate the _____ of _____.
-We should communicate about our _____.
-We need to communicate about _____ among _____.

A strong and healthy church has members who communicate with one another.
We speak the truth in love for one another, and we likewise listen with love for one another.

WELCOME TO PARKVIEW!

We are SO glad you are with us today!

Are you our guest? We would enjoy meeting you! Please take a moment to fill out an attendance card found next to the hymnals in front of you. You can pass the card to the aisles or drop it in one of the collection boxes on the lobby tables, next to the communion elements.

What to expect: We seek to follow the New Testament example for our assembly. So you may notice that we sing without accompaniment; different men lead us in prayers and a sermon; we take the Lord's Supper, or communion, each Sunday; and members give financially.

If you have questions about what we do or why we do it, please – let us know.
