Our failures expose our weakness, but they cannot exhaust the grace of Jesus.

- Failure exposes our need

Peter loved Jesus but relied on his own strength. His denial revealed his need for Christ's sustaining grace.
Luke 22:31-34, 60-62

- Shame causes us to retreat

Peter returned to the safety of his former life, but Jesus pursued him.
John 21:1-8

- Mercy comes before mission

Jesus welcomed Peter to the fire and restored fellowship before addressing his calling.
John 21:9-14

- Love restores the heart

Jesus revisited Peter's failure to bring healing, not humiliation.
John 21:15-17

- Grace renews our purpose

Peter's failure did not disqualify him. Jesus entrusted him with a renewed calling.
John 21:15-19

Jesus does more than forgive our past—He restores our hearts, renews our purpose, and calls us to follow Him.
