Jesus... In the Gospel of Luke
The One and Only Great Foundation

With Pastor Mel Svendsen
October 25, 2026

Luke 6:46-49

NOTES:

QUESTION 1

Jesus asks in Luke 6:46 why people call him Lord but do not do what he says -- in what areas of your life might there be a gap between what you profess and how you actually live, and what would it look like to close that gap?

QUESTION 2

The sermon describes two builders, one who digs deep and one who builds on the surface -- where in your spiritual life are you tempted to take shortcuts rather than investing in a deep, lasting foundation?

QUESTION 3

The pastor argues that all truth in the universe is authored by God -- how does this conviction shape the way you evaluate competing ideas, worldviews, or cultural messages you encounter every day?

QUESTION 4

The sermon draws a parallel between a house with a crumbling foundation and a person who looks fine on the outside but is falling apart within -- how can the church create a safe environment where people feel free to admit their foundations are shaking rather than pretending otherwise?

QUESTION 5

The pastor challenges listeners to ask themselves whether they

QUESTION 10

The pastor recounts a spontaneous conversation at a basketball game that led to an invitation to church, suggesting that people around us are often quietly searching for answers -- what barriers, whether fear, assumption, or busyness, prevent you from having those kinds of natural spiritual conversations, and how might you begin to lower them?
