The Chosen Lamb of God!

With Pastor Mel Svendsen
March 29, 2026

Luke 19:28-40

NOTES:

QUESTION 1

How does understanding Jesus as the worthy Lamb of God on Lamb Selection Day deepen your appreciation for the sacrifice He made on the cross?

QUESTION 2

The pastor emphasized that Jesus didn't need confirmation of His identity through fulfilled prophecies, but we do. How do fulfilled prophecies strengthen your personal faith and help you combat doubt?

QUESTION 3

When the pastor said he's surprised God took six days to create the world rather than one, what does this perspective reveal about how we should view God's power in our current circumstances?

QUESTION 4

The sermon describes true worship as involving an element of personal sacrifice. What specific sacrifices are you making in your worship, and how might you worship more sacrificially throughout your week?

QUESTION 5

Jesus told Pilate that he had no authority except what was given from above. How does this truth about God's sovereignty comfort you when facing people or systems that seem to have power over your life?

NOTES:

QUESTION 6

The crowd on Palm Sunday worshiped Jesus for who He is and what He had done. How can you cultivate a worship practice that balances both aspects rather than focusing only on what God does for you?

QUESTION 7

The pastor challenged us to never let opposition silence our praise of Christ. What specific opposition or cultural pressure are you facing that tempts you to diminish your witness, and how will you respond?

QUESTION 8

Reflecting on the man near death who maintained deep joy and faith, what does it reveal about the nature of Christian joy that it can exist underneath pain and difficult circumstances?

QUESTION 9

Jesus spoke with authority because He is the living Word of God. How does recognizing Scripture as God's authoritative word change the way you read, study, and apply the Bible to your life?

QUESTION 10

The pastor said if we were silent, the rocks would cry out in worship. What would it look like for your life to be so full of praise that your worship is as inevitable and natural as rocks crying out?
