1 Peter 5:12-14

NOTES:

QUESTION 1

How does the concept of coming to Christ 'just as you are' challenge our tendency to try to clean ourselves up before approaching God, and what does this reveal about the nature of grace?

QUESTION 2

Peter highlights Silas and Mark as unsung heroes who faithfully served behind the scenes. Who are the unsung heroes in your life or church community, and how can you acknowledge their contributions?

QUESTION 3

The sermon emphasizes that only what we do for Christ has eternal impact. How does this truth shape your daily priorities and the way you invest your time and talents?

QUESTION 4

What are the dangers of the two errors mentioned: isolation from the church and passive spectating? How can believers guard against falling into these traps?

QUESTION 5

Paul initially refused to give Mark a second chance after he deserted the first missionary journey, but later acknowledged Mark's usefulness. What does this teach us about the importance of restoration and second chances in Christian community?
