Monday Day 1

ABBA, FATHER

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV)

15 The Spirit you received does not make you slaves, so that you live in fear again; rather, the Spirit you received brought about your adoption to sonship.[f]
And by him we cry, “Abba,[g] Father.”

Romans 8:15 (NIV)

Our God is our Abba; He is our Father. This name defines God's heart for us.

Jesus was the first to speak this name to God, which was shocking to the Jewish culture. Paul extends that name to all of us: we can relate to God as our Father. We have the same access to God that Jesus had.

The name Abba communicates intimacy. It shows a relationship that only we, as His children, have with Him. God is your Father in the good, in the bad, and in the struggle, and you can always run to Him.

What does "Abba, Father" mean for us as we pray?

- You are loved.
- You can trust God.
- You don't have to hold anything back.

Tuesday Day 2

JEHOVAH TSIDKENU: THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV)

16 In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety.
This is the name by which he will be called:The Lord Our Righteous Savior.

Jeremiah 23:6 (NIV)

21 God made him who had no sin to be sin[b] for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 5:21(NIV)

Why do we need God to be our righteousness?

There may be things in our lives that hinder our prayers. We can avoid prayer because of shame, frustration, or regret.

Isaiah 64:6 (NIV): We cannot make ourselves righteous. That is why we need God to be our righteousness.

Believe in the breakthrough over these lies of the enemy. We combat all of them with Jehovah Tsidkenu.

Romans 3:22–25 (NIV): Because He is my righteousness:

- My shame turns to confidence: Hebrews 4:16 (NIV)
- My regret turns to freedom: Romans 8:1 (NIV)
- My frustration turns to rest: Romans 5:1 (NIV)

Wednesday Day 3

JEHOVAH SHALOM: THE LORD IS PEACE

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV)

So Gideon built an altar to the Lord there and called it The Lord Is Peace. To this day it stands in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Judges 6:24

The names of God tell us who He is, build our faith, and guide our intercession.

Peace is a person. God is the originator and the giver of peace.
God's peace is greater than our circumstances. God often establishes peace within us because He changes things around us.
God's peace makes us whole. Jesus restored what had left us broken.

We can live free from fear. Peace is not the absence of turmoil; peace is the presence of God. Biblical peace is not simply God answering our prayer; it is knowing that He is with us.
We can become carriers of God's peace.

Prayer

- Bind the spirit of fear.
- Pray for healing from anger and depression.
- Pray for peace in our relationships.
- Proclaim His promises.

Thursday Day 4

JEHOVAH ROHI: THE LORD MY SHEPHERD

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

1 The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing. 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, 3 he refreshes my soul.
He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. 4 Even though I walk through the darkest valley,[a] I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. 5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. 6 Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Psalm 23:1-6

4 When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice. 5 But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will run away from him because they do not recognize a stranger's voice.

John 10:4-5

The Lord is my Shepherd (Psalm 23:1–6)

- You lead me.
- You guide me.
- You feed me.
- You comfort me.
- You correct me.
- You encourage me.

Knowing His voice (John 10:4–5)

The sheep follow Him because they know His voice.

- Who do you listen to?
- How do you listen to the voice of God?

How do you learn to recognize someone's voice? By spending so much time with them that you know it instantly. The same is true of God's voice.

Friday Day 5

JEHOVAH RAPHA: THE LORD WHO HEALS

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

26 He said, “If you listen carefully to the Lord your God and do what is right in his eyes, if you pay attention to his commands and keep all his decrees, I will not bring on you any of the diseases I brought on the Egyptians, for I am the Lord, who heals you.”

Exodus 15:26

Healer is who He is

Healing is not just what He does; it is who He is. Jesus didn't just have the power to heal; He was the Healer (Exodus 15:26; John 14, NIV). Healing flows from Jesus: the blind receive sight, the deaf hear, the lame walk, and the sick are healed.

Receive Jehovah Rapha as your Healer.

1. Pray God's character

Healing is what He does.

We don't pray to convince Him to heal us; healing is His natural character.

1 Peter 2:24 (NIV)

Isaiah 53 (NIV): He bore our sickness and our pain.

2. Pray God's promises

Healing is His ultimate plan

Our hope is in heaven. Heaven is not a consolation plan; it is the goal (2 Timothy 4:18, NIV). Healing may come now or it may come later, but it is coming.

Isaiah 55 (NIV): God's ways are not our ways; His ways are higher.

3. P*ray God's Kingdom

Pray fully surrounded and fully expectant.

Saturday Day 6

JEHOVAH NISSI: THE LORD MY BANNER

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.
Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

Moses built an altar and called it The Lord is my Banner.
Exodus 17:15

Know Him.
Trust Him.
Seek Him.

Even though we are following Jesus, we will still face battles. One meaning of a banner is victory. In ancient times, a banner declared the presence of the king or commander.

Authority: "You are my Lord."
The Lord has all authority.
Colossians 1:18 (NIV): In everything He is supreme; He is the one in charge.

Identity: "I am with you."
A banner let everyone know whom they were facing.
Colossians 3:3 (NIV): Our life is hidden with Christ in God. Be confident in your identity; we must know whom we are attached to.

Victory: "I win."
We will face battles, but we win.
1 Corinthians 15:57 (NIV): God gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. The winner is determined before the battle even starts.

Sunday Day 7

THOSE WHO KNOW YOUR NAME

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.
Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

The name of the Lord is a fortified tower; the righteous run to it and are safe.
Proverbs 18:10

Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.
Romans 10:13

This week we walked through six names of God. Today we rest and remember who He is.

Looking back

- Abba, Father: You are loved, you can trust Him, and you don't have to hold anything back.
- Jehovah Tsidkenu: He is our righteousness. Shame turns to confidence, regret to freedom, and frustration to rest.
- Jehovah Shalom: Peace is not the absence of turmoil; it is the presence of God.
- Jehovah Rohi: The Lord my Shepherd leads, guides, feeds, comforts, corrects, and encourages me.
- Jehovah Rapha: Healer is who He is, not just what He does.
- Jehovah Nissi: He is my banner, and the victory is already His.

Know Him. Trust Him. Seek Him.
Psalm 9:10 puts these three in order. First we know His name. Knowing who He is leads us to trust Him. Trusting Him leads us to seek Him, and He has never forsaken those who seek Him.

The names of God are not just titles to memorize. Each one is an invitation to know Him more deeply.

Reflect

- Which name of God spoke to you most this week?
- Where do you need to move from knowing about God to truly trusting Him?

Prayer

Father, thank You for showing us who You are. Help us to know You, trust You, and seek You with our whole hearts. Prepare us for the week ahead.

Monday Day 8

EL SHADDAI: GOD ALMIGHTY

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to him and said, “I am God Almighty; walk before me faithfully and be blameless.

Genesis 17:1

God shows up and gives Abram a new name.
Our God is mighty and filled with unstoppable power; He can do very big things. He is also the God who nourishes, supplies, and satisfies; He cares for the very small things.

- The God who split the Red Sea is the same God who sent manna every morning.
- The God who thundered on Sinai is the same God who kept Israel's sandals from wearing out for 40 years.
- The God who stopped the Jordan at flood stage is the same God who sent ravens to feed Elijah.
- The God who shut the mouths of lions is the same God who kept a widow's oil from running dry.
- The God who silenced the storm is the same God who cooked breakfast on the beach for His friends.

He has all the power in the universe, and He chooses to use it to provide for all His children. We serve a God who has all the power, and He invites us to put all our trust in Him.

What does this mean for us?

We go 100. You may be walking through something, but you stay tied to God; you are with your God. The Holy Spirit is your best friend and your advocate. Don't stop going 100. Maybe you haven't seen the answer yet. Keep going! Your answer is coming; your miracle is coming.

We believe anything is possible. Be full of faith.

Pray

- Salvation
- A spirit of evangelism
- Revival in our land

Tuesday Day 9

JEHOVAH SABAOTH : THE LORD OF HOSTS

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

ear after year this man went up from his town to worship and sacrifice to the Lord Almighty at Shiloh, where Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli, were priests of the Lord.

1 Samuel 1:3

David said to the Philistine, 'You come against me with sword and spear and javelin, but I come against you in the name of the LORD Almighty, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.

1 Samuel 17:45

God always has more on your side than the enemy has on his.

We need to see the battle the way God sees it. The army is already there; you just have to see it. When you call on the name of God, the army isn't on its way; it has been there all along.

The story of Elisha's servant is the perfect example (2 Kings 6:16–17, NIV):

- Don't be afraid.
- Lord, open my eyes.

Psalm 46:7 (NIV): We have a God who is there even while we sleep.

Wednesday Day 10

EL ROI: THE GOD WHO SEES ME

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

She gave this name to the Lord who spoke to her: 'You are the God who sees me,' for she said, 'I have now seen the One who sees me.

Genesis 16:13

The Story

There's a lot happening beneath the surface of this story. God had made Abram and Sarai a promise. Instead of waiting on it, Sarai gave her servant Hagar to Abram — and from that point on, things unraveled. Hagar ends up fleeing into the wilderness, alone (Genesis 16:7-13).

Look at the power dynamics here. Hagar has no protection. No status. No one coming to look for her. She is, by every human measure, unseen.
And that's exactly where the angel of the Lord finds her.

Not in the tent. Not in the promise. In the desert, alone, with nothing — that's where God shows up and speaks to her, specifically. He already knew everything about her situation. He didn't need the information. What Hagar needed was to know that she was known by Him.
That's the invitation in this moment for you too. In the middle of these 21 days, God has not forgotten you. God has not overlooked you. He saw Hagar before she ever prayed a word. You don't have to perform to earn God's attention — you already have it.

So ask yourself honestly: Does God see me? Does He see what I'm walking through?
If He saw Hagar in the desert, He can see you.
By Genesis 21, God does more than see her — He opens her eyes to see what was already right in front of her (v. 19). That's who He is. He doesn't just have the whole picture from a distance — He's the God who sees, and the God who helps you see.

Call on the God Who Sees You

1. Speak it. Call Him by His name — El Roi, the God who sees.
2. Expect it. Pray expecting His answer, not just hoping for one.
3. Embrace it. Receive what He shows you, and thank Him for it.
4. Share it. Someone else needs to see it too.

Thursday Day 11

JEHOVAH JIREH: THE GOD WHO PROVIDES

“So Abraham called that place The Lord Will Provide. And to this day it is said, “On the mountain of the Lord it will be provided.””

Genesis 22:14 (NIV)

3 Truths on How We Can Pray Jehovah Jireh

1. God, I trust You. (Genesis 22:1-5)
In verse 5, God called Abraham to sacrifice Isaac, and Abraham told his servants, "We are going to worship, and we will come back to you."
Our confidence is in who can provide for us, not how He will do it.

2. God, I trust Your timing. (Genesis 22:6-13)
God provided exactly what Abraham needed, exactly when he needed it.

3. God, I will testify. (Genesis 22:14)
Abraham walked into this situation, walked through a test, and walked away with a deeper understanding of who God is. He named that place Jehovah Jireh.

Closing Thought
What you walk through in this life is not meant to stay inside of you — it's meant to be a testimony to someone else standing on the mountain they're walking through.

Friday Day 12

IMMANUEL: FATHER

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and will call him Immanuel.

Isaiah 7:14

Immanuel is the fulfillment of a prophecy that the prophet Isaiah spoke about 700 years before Jesus was born.

Have you ever found yourself in a place where you feel shaken? The sign came when Jesus was born, when the Messiah came.

- Old Testament: people going back to God.
- New Testament: God coming back to people.

Prayer

- God was with me in the past: gratitude.
- God is with me in the present: hope.
- God is with me in the future: faith (Matthew 28:20, NIV).

Saturday Day 13

EL ELYON: GOD MOST HIGH

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

18 Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine. He was priest of God Most High, 19 and he blessed Abram, saying, Blessed be Abram by God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth. 20 And praise be to God Most High, who delivered your enemies into your hand.” Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

Genesis 14: 18-20

You don't have to rely on the world's way of fixing things. Through prayer, we have access to the Manufacturer of heaven and earth.

When we call on the Most High

- What's broken is repaired.
- What's damaged is restored.
- What's taken is returned.

What God gives you comes with a lifetime guarantee.
When you call on His name, things change.

Sunday Day 14

THE GOD WHO DOES NOT CHANGE

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

Hebrews 13:8

I the Lord do not change. So you, the descendants of Jacob, are not destroyed.

Malachi 3:6

This week we saw the greatness of God and His nearness to us. Today we rest in the truth that He does not change.

Looking back

- El Shaddai: The God of unstoppable power who also cares about the very small things.
- Jehovah Sabaoth: The Lord of Hosts, who always has more on our side than on the enemy's.
- El Roi: The God who sees me.
- Jehovah Jireh: The Lord will provide.
- Immanuel: God with us in the past, the present, and the future.
- El Elyon: God Most High, who repairs what is broken, restores what is damaged, and returns what was taken.

Who He is does not change
The God who answered in the Bible is the same God who hears us today. He sees us, He provides for us, He is with us, and He is above every situation we face.

When circumstances change, He does not. That is why we can pray with confidence.

Reflect

- Where have you seen God provide, protect, or restore this week?
- What situation do you need to place under the authority of the Most High?

Prayer
Lord, thank You that You never change. You see me, You are with me, and You are above all things. Help me to stand on who You are, not on how I feel. Amen.

Monday Day 15

ELOHIM: GOD, THE CREATOR

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Genesis 1:1

28 God blessed them and said to them, “Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky and over every living creature that moves on the ground.”

Genesis 1:28

He blesses us. The God who needs nothing and asks for nothing decides to bless us.

That is grace.

Prayer

Receive peace in your unknown (John 14:27, NIV). In the middle of your way, you can receive His peace.

Receive wisdom for your situation (James 1:5, NIV). Keep pressing and keep believing. Obey that wisdom.

Receive strength for your day (Lamentations 3:22–23, NIV). This keeps your dependence on God; every day, He will be there.

Tuesday Day 16

JEHOVAH SHAMMAH: THE LORD IS THERE

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

he distance all around will be 18,000 cubits. And the name of the city from that time on will be: the Lord is there.

Ezekiel 48:35

God never forsakes those who seek Him.
Reject the lie of abandonment

When we pray in the name of Jehovah Shammah, we reject the lie of abandonment. Nothing can separate us from the love of God.

- Matthew 28:20 (NIV)
- John 14:23 (NIV)
- 2 Corinthians 6:16 (NIV)
- Revelation 21:3 (NIV)

Our God is a God who dwells with us, and He is always available.

Receive the invitation into His presence

The greatest reward of a prayer season is the invitation into God's presence. He will show up anywhere. Draw near to Him. God is wherever someone is seeking Him.

Wednesday Day 17

JEHOVAH MEKODDISHKEM : THE LORD WHO SANCTIFIES

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

3 and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with wisdom, with understanding, with knowledge and with all kinds of skills.

Exodus 31:13

It is never a risk to trust in God.

Before Israel did anything, God set them apart to sanctify them. If you know Jesus, He has set you apart. God frees His people, sets them apart, and then sends them out.

We pray and live from a place of God-given identity. We are not praying to be accepted; we pray in response, because He has already accepted us.

Exodus 31:13 (NIV): He is the God of the Sabbath. We cannot create rest; He is the rest.

Prayer

- Thank You for saving me, God. You are my Sanctifier.
- Show me how to live.
- Send me.

Thursday Day 18

EL OLAM : THE EVERLASTING GOD

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there he called on the name of the LORD, the Eternal God.

Genesis 21:33

27 Why do you complain, Jacob? Why do you say, Israel, “My way is hidden from the Lord; my cause is disregarded by my God”? 28 Do you not know? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom. 29 He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. 30 Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall;

Genesis 40:27-30

God is always faithful.

Prayer

- God is in control: I can trust Him when I don't understand.
- God sees you in the middle of your struggle.
- God is my strength: I can trust Him when I'm weak.
- God is worth waiting on: I can trust His timing. God is never early and never late; He is always on time.

Friday Day 19

YAHWEH: I AM WHO I AM.

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

10 So now, go. I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring my people the Israelites out of Egypt.” 11 But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?” 12 And God said, “I will be with you. And this will be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you[a] will worship God on this mountain.” 13 Moses said to God, “Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ Then what shall I tell them?” 14 God said to Moses, “I am who I am.
[b] This is what you are to say to the Israelites: ‘I am has sent me to you.’” 15 God also said to Moses, “Say to the Israelites, ‘The Lord,[c] the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob—has sent me to you.’ “This is my name forever, the name you shall call me from generation to generation.

Exodus 3:10-15

God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble.

Psalm 46:1

God said, "I will be with you."

- Moses: Who am I? God: I AM.
- Moses: What if they...? God: I AM.
- Moses: How can I...? God: I AM.

We love to focus attention on ourselves, but God wants us to put our attention on Him. Don't keep your prayer requests always centered on you; go back to who He is. Keep His names in mind.

Prayer gets my eyes off everything I'm not and onto everything God is (Exodus 3:12, NIV).

That is the revelation of Yahweh: maybe you don't have the answer, but you know He is there and He has it.

Saturday Day 20

JESUS: THE LORD SAVES

Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

9 Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name,
10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
11 and every tongue acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:9-11

- He is the Lord of all.
- He overcomes.
- He has the victory.

Calvary
Thank Him for the Cross. The good news has never become old news.

- He saves.
- He heals.
- He redeems.
- He changes.
- He blesses.

Sunday Day 21

CALL ON HIS NAME

Those who know your name trust in you, for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Theme verse: Psalm 9:10 (NIV

Give praise to the Lord, proclaim his name; make known among the nations what he has done.

Psalms 105:1

Give praise to the Lord, proclaim his name; make known among the nations what he has done.
Acts 4:12

And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Colossians 3:17

Today is the last day of our 21 days of fasting and prayer. We began by reading Psalm 9:10, and we end the same way.

Looking back

- Elohim: The Creator, who needs nothing and chooses to bless us. That is grace.
- Jehovah Shammah: The Lord is there. He never forsakes those who seek Him.
- Jehovah Mekoddishkem: The Lord who sanctifies. He has set us apart, and we pray from a place of identity.
- El Olam: The Everlasting God, who is always faithful and always on time.
- Yahweh: I AM. Prayer takes our eyes off what we are not and puts them on all that God is.
- Jesus: The Lord saves. He is the Lord of all, and He has the victory.

What we take with us

These 21 days were never about earning anything from God. They were about getting to know Him. Those who know His name trust Him, and those who seek Him will find Him.

The fast ends today, but the prayer does not. Keep His names in mind. When fear comes, remember Jehovah Shalom. When you feel alone, remember Jehovah Shammah. When you don't have the answer, remember Yahweh, who has it.

Reflect

- How has your view of God grown over these 21 days?
- Which name of God will you carry with you from here?

Prayer

Thank You, Lord, for these 21 days. Thank You for revealing who You are. We will keep calling on Your name, because You have never forsaken those who seek You. In the name of Jesus, amen.
