

The Good Life

We all want to live a good life. But what do we really mean when we say the good life? In this series, we'll learn how the Holy Spirit helps us experience more of the life we were created to live. During these five weeks, we'll discover a version of life and a way to do high school that is better than we ever could have imagined on our own.

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

Start your teen's day off by letting them know some area of their life you've seen growth and/or maturity in them over the summer.

Their Time

Pick one of the fruit of the Spirit from Galatians 5:22-23, and pray that particular fruit would grow in both your teenager's life and yours.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, go around the table and have each person describe how they would define "the good life." Then, as a family, talk about the ideas that are within reach (because there will be some that far out there), and what you all are doing as a family to have the good life you all want.

Bed Time

When your teen wants to talk, pay attention to your facial expression/reactions.
