TESTIFY

EXPERIENCING THE POWER, PRESENCE,
AND PURPOSE OF GOD IN ACTS

We glorify the Father by following the Holy Spirit in sharing the story of Jesus.

"The Mission" Part 1
Acts 13

1. Let's be a Spirit-led _____.
 - a. vv. 1-3
 - b. We cannot expect Spirit-powered _____ if we are not a Spirit-dependent church.
 - c. Have we become content with routine, or do we come together with a Spirit-led hunger for God to work in ways that advance His kingdom?
 - d. Romans 15:13
 - e. A Spirit-led church...
 - i. Worships united in Christ.
 - ii. Bears _____ together to a watching world.
 - iii. Serves the least of these.
 - iv. Prays with fervent dependence on God.
 - v. Lives with _____ that God will do great things.
2. Let's send out Spirit-led _____.
 - a. vv. 4-12
 - b. Barnabas and Saul are SENT by their church to share the Good News. This is what Spirit-led churches do!
 - c. Wherever the gospel advances, opposition is never far behind.
 - d. Because the tomb is _____, the church must not be idle - we must live sent.
 - e. John 20:19-21
3. Let's deliver the full _____.
 - a. vv. 13-41
 - b. The gospel is rooted in God's redemptive work throughout history. (vv. 16-25)

- c. The _____ of the story is Jesus Christ. (vv. 26-37)
- d. The resurrection proves Jesus is the promised Savior and King. (vv. 30-37)
- e. Forgiveness of sins is found only through Him. (vv. 38-39)
- f. Every person must respond to the gospel by _____. (vv. 40-41)
- g. A Spirit-led church delivers the whole gospel, the bad news of sin, the good news of Christ, and the call to believe.

4. Let's be prepared for _____.
 - a. vv. 42-52
 - b. The people BEGGED for more!
 - c. If someone were to ask you to define the gospel, what would you say?
 - d. The Gospel is the good news that Jesus Christ, the sinless Savior, willingly gave His life as a substitute for our sins, satisfying the justice of God, and rose again in victory over sin and death, offering forgiveness, new life, and unending joy to all who repent and believe.
 - e. The Jewish leaders rejected the message, opposed the messengers, and attempted to silence the mission, but God's purposes prevailed.
 - f. 1 Corinthians 1:18, NIV
 - g. What would happen if every member of our church saw themselves as a missionary and boldly shared the gospel throughout Escambia County?

What would happen if we intentionally looked for opportunities to share the gospel, pray with people, serve our neighbors, and point others to Christ?

NOW WHAT?!

A Spirit-led church worships faithfully, sends boldly, proclaims Christ clearly, and trusts God with the results.
