SEPTEMBER 2026

Last newsletter, I shared my favorite scripture passage is Galatians 5:22-23—the Fruit of the Spirit. Over the next few weeks, you'll begin to understand why.

Starting on Labor Day weekend, we'll kick off our next sermon and worship series "Harvesting the Fruit of the Spirit". Have you ever wondered why that passage is titled "Fruit" and not "Fruits"? After all, the Apostle Paul outlines quite a few qualities—love, joy, peace... The word Paul used in his original letter, karpos, is deliberately singular. That singular focus is really important.

We do not get to pick and choose which qualities we mature and grow into as disciples of Christ, like some sort of spiritual breakfast buffet at Big Boy. Instead, through the power of the Holy Spirit we can grow into our identity in Christ and mature as his disciples. All of who we are is being transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit as we follow Christ. What better way to describe Jesus than the one who is and brings true love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, faithfulness, and self-control? This fall will be a season of better understanding who our God is and therefore who we are becoming as God's beloved people.

May the season ahead be one of growth and maturity for us all as we let God harvest the Fruit that has been planted and nourished in us by Christ and through the Holy Spirit.

Grace and Peace, Pastor Adam

September 2026 Worship

September 6 Introduction to The Fruits of the Spirit COMMUNION

Worship Leader Reading: Psalm 1

Preaching Text: Galatians 5:13-26

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam dives into Paul's warning and invitation to the Galatians to live by the Spirit and therefore bear the fruits of the Spirit. He will also make connections with Psalm 1.

Helpful Resource I found while outlining this series: <https://lumcmaui.org/sermons/fruitsofthespirit>

September 13 Love

Psalm Reading: Psalm 136:1-9 (CEB)

Preaching Text: 1 John 4: 12-21 (NRSV)

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam outlines how our love for God is because God first loves us, but at the same time we are not truly loving God if we do not show and share love to others.

September 20 Joy COMMUNION

Psalm Reading: Psalm 126 (CEB)

Preaching Text: Nehemiah 8:1-12 (NRSV)

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam explains that while joy is a feeling, it is a choice we can make

September 27 Peace

Psalm Reading: Psalm 29 (CEB)

Preaching Text: Philippians 4:4-7 (NRSV)

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam dives into the mystery of how God has so much power (as described in Psalm 29) but we can have so much turmoil and troubles in our lives. What does it mean to have God's peace that surpasses all understanding guard our hearts and minds?

Based on ancient Toltec wisdom, the Four Agreements offer a code of conduct that can transform our lives to a new experience of freedom, happiness and love.

BE IMPECCABLE WITH YOUR WORD

Speak with integrity.

DON'T TAKE ANYTHING PERSONALLY

Nothing others do is because of you.

DON'T MAKE ASSUMPTIONS

Find the courage to ask questions and express what you really want.

ALWAYS DO YOUR BEST

Under any circumstance, simply do your best, and you will avoid self-judgment, self-abuse, and regret.

Stephen Ministry

Happy Fall, Church Family! We welcome and look forward to working with Pastor Adam. We also need your help in checking on our home and otherwise bound folks! Visiting with them, calling them, and sending encouraging cards all make a huge difference to them. A big part of our ministry is just listening to those we encounter, not giving answers but allowing God to work in their lives and then working it out themselves with God's help. If you'd like more information about how to do that, please let one of the Stephen Leaders know so we can start a new Stephen Ministry Training Class! Tammy Youmans, Virginia Curtis, and I would be happy to answer your questions.

Also, remember the Prayer Vigil in our beautiful Chapel, held on the 3rd Wednesday of each month from 6:00 to 7:00. A Stephen Minister will be available if you want to talk, or you are welcome to just pray and meditate.

Blessings,

Barb Perry

Last newsletter, I shared my favorite scripture passage is Galatians 5:22-23—the Fruit of the Spirit. Over the next few weeks, you'll begin to understand why.

Starting on Labor Day weekend, we'll kick off our next sermon and worship series "Harvesting the Fruit of the Spirit". Have you ever wondered why that passage is titled "Fruit" and not "Fruits"? After all, the Apostle Paul outlines quite a few qualities—love, joy, peace... The word Paul used in his original letter, karpos, is deliberately singular. That singular focus is really important.

We do not get to pick and choose which qualities we mature and grow into as disciples of Christ, like some sort of spiritual breakfast buffet at Big Boy. Instead, through the power of the Holy Spirit we can grow into our identity in Christ and mature as his disciples. All of who we are is being transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit as we follow Christ. What better way to describe Jesus than the one who is and brings true love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, faithfulness, and self-control? This fall will be a season of better understanding who our God is and therefore who we are becoming as God's beloved people.

May the season ahead be one of growth and maturity for us all as we let God harvest the Fruit that has been planted and nourished in us by Christ and through the Holy Spirit.

Grace and Peace, Pastor Adam

September 2026 Worship

September 6 Introduction to The Fruits of the Spirit COMMUNION

Worship Leader Reading: Psalm 1

Preaching Text: Galatians 5:13-26

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam dives into Paul's warning and invitation to the Galatians to live by the Spirit and therefore bear the fruits of the Spirit. He will also make connections with Psalm 1.

Helpful Resource I found while outlining this series: <https://lumcmaui.org/sermons/fruitsofthespirit>

September 13 Love

Psalm Reading: Psalm 136:1-9 (CEB)

Preaching Text: 1 John 4: 12-21 (NRSV)

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam outlines how our love for God is because God first loves us, but at the same time we are not truly loving God if we do not show and share love to others.

September 20 Joy COMMUNION

Psalm Reading: Psalm 126 (CEB)

Preaching Text: Nehemiah 8:1-12 (NRSV)

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam explains that while joy is a feeling, it is a choice we can make

September 27 Peace

Psalm Reading: Psalm 29 (CEB)

Preaching Text: Philippians 4:4-7 (NRSV)

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam dives into the mystery of how God has so much power (as described in Psalm 29) but we can have so much turmoil and troubles in our lives. What does it mean to have God's peace that surpasses all understanding guard our hearts and minds?

Stephen Ministry

Happy Fall, Church Family! We welcome and look forward to working with Pastor Adam. We also need your help in checking on our home and otherwise bound folks! Visiting with them, calling them, and sending encouraging cards all make a huge difference to them. A big part of our ministry is just listening to those we encounter, not giving answers but allowing God to work in their lives and then working it out themselves with God's help. If you'd like more information about how to do that, please let one of the Stephen Leaders know so we can start a new Stephen Ministry Training Class! Tammy Youmans, Virginia Curtis, and I would be happy to answer your questions.

Also, remember the Prayer Vigil in our beautiful Chapel, held on the 3rd Wednesday of each month from 6:00 to 7:00. A Stephen Minister will be available if you want to talk, or you are welcome to just pray and meditate.

Blessings,

Barb Perry

Last newsletter, I shared my favorite scripture passage is Galatians 5:22-23—the Fruit of the Spirit. Over the next few weeks, you'll begin to understand why.

Starting on Labor Day weekend, we'll kick off our next sermon and worship series "Harvesting the Fruit of the Spirit". Have you ever wondered why that passage is titled "Fruit" and not "Fruits"? After all, the Apostle Paul outlines quite a few qualities—love, joy, peace... The word Paul used in his original letter, karpos, is deliberately singular. That singular focus is really important.

We do not get to pick and choose which qualities we mature and grow into as disciples of Christ, like some sort of spiritual breakfast buffet at Big Boy. Instead, through the power of the Holy Spirit we can grow into our identity in Christ and mature as his disciples. All of who we are is being transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit as we follow Christ. What better way to describe Jesus than the one who is and brings true love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, faithfulness, and self-control? This fall will be a season of better understanding who our God is and therefore who we are becoming as God's beloved people.

May the season ahead be one of growth and maturity for us all as we let God harvest the Fruit that has been planted and nourished in us by Christ and through the Holy Spirit.

Grace and Peace, Pastor Adam

September 2026 Worship

September 6 Introduction to The Fruits of the Spirit COMMUNION

Worship Leader Reading: Psalm 1

Preaching Text: Galatians 5:13-26

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam dives into Paul's warning and invitation to the Galatians to live by the Spirit and therefore bear the fruits of the Spirit. He will also make connections with Psalm 1.

Helpful Resource I found while outlining this series: <https://lumcmaui.org/sermons/fruitsofthespirit>

September 13 Love

Psalm Reading: Psalm 136:1-9 (CEB)

Preaching Text: 1 John 4: 12-21 (NRSV)

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam outlines how our love for God is because God first loves us, but at the same time we are not truly loving God if we do not show and share love to others.

September 20 Joy COMMUNION

Psalm Reading: Psalm 126 (CEB)

Preaching Text: Nehemiah 8:1-12 (NRSV)

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam explains that while joy is a feeling, it is a choice we can make

September 27 Peace

Psalm Reading: Psalm 29 (CEB)

Preaching Text: Philippians 4:4-7 (NRSV)

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam dives into the mystery of how God has so much power (as described in Psalm 29) but we can have so much turmoil and troubles in our lives. What does it mean to have God's peace that surpasses all understanding guard our hearts and minds?

Stephen Ministry

Happy Fall, Church Family! We welcome and look forward to working with Pastor Adam. We also need your help in checking on our home and otherwise bound folks! Visiting with them, calling them, and sending encouraging cards all make a huge difference to them. A big part of our ministry is just listening to those we encounter, not giving answers but allowing God to work in their lives and then working it out themselves with God's help. If you'd like more information about how to do that, please let one of the Stephen Leaders know so we can start a new Stephen Ministry Training Class! Tammy Youmans, Virginia Curtis, and I would be happy to answer your questions.

Also, remember the Prayer Vigil in our beautiful Chapel, held on the 3rd Wednesday of each month from 6:00 to 7:00. A Stephen Minister will be available if you want to talk, or you are welcome to just pray and meditate.

Blessings,

Barb Perry

SEPTEMBER 2026

Last newsletter, I shared my favorite scripture passage is Galatians 5:22-23—the Fruit of the Spirit. Over the next few weeks, you'll begin to understand why.

Starting on Labor Day weekend, we'll kick off our next sermon and worship series "Harvesting the Fruit of the Spirit". Have you ever wondered why that passage is titled "Fruit" and not "Fruits"? After all, the Apostle Paul outlines quite a few qualities—love, joy, peace... The word Paul used in his original letter, karpos, is deliberately singular. That singular focus is really important.

We do not get to pick and choose which qualities we mature and grow into as disciples of Christ, like some sort of spiritual breakfast buffet at Big Boy.

Instead, through the power of the Holy Spirit we can grow into our identity in Christ and mature as his disciples. All of who we are is being transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit as we follow Christ. What better way to describe Jesus than the one who is and brings true love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, faithfulness, and self-control? This fall will be a season of better understanding who our God is and therefore who we are becoming as God's beloved people.

May the season ahead be one of growth and maturity for us all as we let God harvest the Fruit that has been planted and nourished in us by Christ and through the Holy Spirit.

Grace and Peace, Pastor Adam

September 2026 Worship

September 6 Introduction to The Fruits of the Spirit COMMUNION

Worship Leader Reading: Psalm 1

Preaching Text: Galatians 5:13-26

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam dives into Paul's warning and invitation to the Galatians to live by the Spirit and therefore bear the fruits of the Spirit. He will also make connections with Psalm 1.

Helpful Resource I found while outlining this series: <https://lumcmaui.org/sermons/fruitsofthespirit>

September 13 Love

Psalm Reading: Psalm 136:1-9 (CEB)

Preaching Text: 1 John 4: 12-21 (NRSV)

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam outlines how our love for God is because God first loves us, but at the same time we are not truly loving God if we do not show and share love to others.

September 20 Joy COMMUNION

Psalm Reading: Psalm 126 (CEB)

Preaching Text: Nehemiah 8:1-12 (NRSV)

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam explains that while joy is a feeling, it is a choice we can make

September 27 Peace

Psalm Reading: Psalm 29 (CEB)

Preaching Text: Philippians 4:4-7 (NRSV)

Sermon Summary: Pastor Adam dives into the mystery of how God has so much power (as described in Psalm 29) but we can have so much turmoil and troubles in our lives. What does it mean to have God's peace that surpasses all understanding guard our hearts and minds?

Stephen Ministry

Happy Fall, Church Family! We welcome and look forward to working with Pastor Adam. We also need your help in checking on our home and otherwise bound folks! Visiting with them, calling them, and sending encouraging cards all make a huge difference to them. A big part of our ministry is just listening to those we encounter, not giving answers but allowing God to work in their lives and then working it out themselves with God's help. If you'd like more information about how to do that, please let one of the Stephen Leaders know so we can start a new Stephen Ministry Training Class! Tammy Youmans, Virginia Curtis, and I would be happy to answer your questions.

Also, remember the Prayer Vigil in our beautiful Chapel, held on the 3rd Wednesday of each month from 6:00 to 7:00. A Stephen Minister will be available if you want to talk, or you are welcome to just pray and meditate.

Blessings,

Barb Perry
