"Anyone who comes to me I will never reject."

— John 6:37(NLT)

BOOK OF THE MONTH

Come Home Without Conditions

There is nothing standing between us and the love of Jesus except the hesitation we sometimes carry in our own hearts. Christ does not require perfection, preparation, or personal cleanup before welcoming us into His Presence. In this very moment — with our questions, struggles, and unfinished stories — we are already invited to come. Just as we are, Jesus lovingly calls, "Come to Me."

Many people quietly drift away from church or fellowship believing they must first straighten out their lives before returning. We often hear, "I need to get myself together before I come back." Truthfully, if acceptance by Christ depended on our ability to fix ourselves, none of us would ever qualify to enter His Presence. The beauty of grace is that Jesus meets us before the change begins, not after it is complete.

Faith is not built upon human performance or religious perfection. The love of Christ is not earned through rules, rituals, or personal achievement, but freely given through His sacrifice. Jesus gave His life knowing our weaknesses, our failures, and our need for mercy — and still chose to receive us fully. His resurrection stands as eternal proof that His love welcomes us long before we feel worthy of it.

This is the message the church must carry with clarity and compassion: No past mistake, present struggle, or personal doubt can cancel God's invitation. Wherever you are in life, whatever burdens you carry, and however distant you may feel, Jesus still extends open arms. His promise remains unchanged — He will never turn away anyone who comes to Him.

The invitation has never expired. The door is still open.

All that remains is one simple response —

"Come home."
