

Pastor's Niche

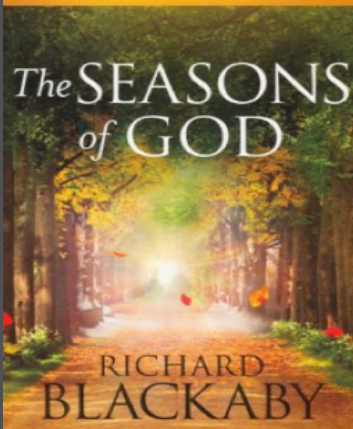

November 2026

"As long as the earth remains, there will be planting and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night."

— Genesis 8:22 (NLT)

BOOK OF THE MONTH

How the Shifting Patterns of Your Life
Reveal His Purposes for You

The Seasons of God
By: Richard Blackaby
Book ISBN#: 978-1-59052-942-3

SCRIPTURES:
Gratefulness

November 1-7
Nahum 1:7

November 8-14
Ephesians 5:19-20

November 15-21
Psalms 103:1-2

November 22-28
Hebrews 13:15-16

November 29-30
Proverbs 11:25

GOD IS STILL FAITHFUL!

Thanksgiving reminds us that even when life feels chaotic, our God remains constant, faithful, and firmly in control! In Genesis 8:22, God promises that as long as the earth remains, the rhythms of planting and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will never cease. What a blessed assurance to know that while our circumstances may change, God's promises have not changed, His power has not weakened, and His faithfulness has not failed! We may be overwhelmed by the headlines, burdened by uncertainty, or anxious about tomorrow, but we serve a God who has never lost control of His creation. When the world around us feels unpredictable, we can rest our hearts in the unchanging character of the One who holds it all together.

We belong to a God whose faithfulness does not depend on the stability of our circumstances.

This Thanksgiving, let us refuse to allow the chaos around us to steal the gratitude within us! We do not have to understand every season to trust the God who established them, nor must we have every answer to rest in the assurance of His promises. The same God who brings the morning after the darkest night can bring peace to our troubled hearts and hope to our weary spirits. So, before we count our blessings around the Thanksgiving table, let us remember the greatest blessing of all: we belong to a God whose faithfulness does not depend on the stability of our circumstances! Give thanks, take a breath, quiet your spirit, and trust Him again, because the seasons will change, the storms will pass, but our God will STILL be faithful!

Pastor Daniel Simmons