Kids In Service Jubilee Sunday

We are looking back, and looking forward to the next 75 years! Our kids are our future, so we want them to be in service to celebrate with us. We have something special planned to include them in the service. Don't give a second thought to how that might “behave”, bring them to church. We will have special worship backpacks to keep them occupied.

75th Anniversary Jubilee – This Weekend!

Looking Back – Looking Forward

We are excited for the Diamond Jubilee Weekend coming up and we would love for you to join the celebration. As part of Belgrade Alliance Church, you are helping create a legacy for generations to come, and we want to say “thank you” for all of your talent & treasures you are pouring into our church family.

Plans are made for a wonderful weekend, and you and your family are invited to join us. Below is a schedule of events to make note of. We ask that you RSVP so we can prepare enough food for each event. Please spread the word with your extended family who may not know about the Jubilee. If you have questions, reach out to Lori Bailey or the church office. For more information and RSVP, visit our website at
