New City Catechism

Question 7: What does the law of God require?

Answer: That we love God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength;
and love our neighbor as ourselves.

Read Mark 11:27-33 out loud as a family.

Use the questions below to lead your family in discussion.

What is authority? Why has God set up authorities?

Who are your authorities? How does God want you to act toward them?

In what ways do you worry about what other people say about you?
What is dangerous about this?

What does this text teach us about Jesus?

Pray Together as a Family

“Father, thank you for the good gift of authority, and for the authorities you have placed over us in our lives, including even the ones we don’t always like. Help us to honor you by the way that we treat them.
Anytime you give us authority, help us use it for your name and not for our own. And help us to care more about what you think than about other people. Thank you for sending Jesus as the ultimate authority to come and save us. In Jesus name, Amen.
