Say- One day, King Ahaz of Judah wondered if he should partner with the country of Assyria. Assyria was a horrible country that did not follow the one true God. They worshipped idols, or fake gods.

Say- The prophet Isaiah warned King Ahaz NOT to join forces with any country that was an enemy of God. Isaiah told King Ahaz to trust God, not anyone else!

Say- But King Ahaz did not listen. King Ahaz thought he was smarter than God’s plan. (show pic)

Say- King Ahaz joined forces with Assyria, and it wasn’t long before King Ahaz began acting just like the Assyrians. King Ahaz stopped worshipping God and started worshipping fake gods and idols. It was horrible.

Say- King Ahaz destroyed the temple of God. Oh no! The country of Assyria, King Ahaz’s chosen partners, turned on him and treated his people terribly.

Say- (show pic) But God was not finished with His people in Judah. God promised that He would protect and save them. So, God gave Isaiah a prophecy, or a message for the future, which he wrote down.

Say- It said, (show pic) “For a child is born to us, a son is given to us. The government will rest on his shoulders. And he will be called: Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.” Wow!

Say- Isaiah prophesied about a baby boy who would be born to save people. Who do you think the baby boy could be? (show pic)

Say- That’s right! It’s Jesus! Jesus is, “Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.” Wow!
