NOVEMBER 15, 2026 • 10:45 AM SERVICE • WORSHIP REFLECTIONS

Thank you for choosing to worship with us. Our hope is you will feel the love of Christ in the gathering of His church on this Lord's Day. We join the Psalmist in praying, "Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of our hearts be pleasing to you, O Lord, our rock and redeemer." If I haven't had the opportunity to meet you, or you would like to say hello, please come by the gathering space after the service so I can meet you. I am truly thankful you decided to join us today.

Ray Tucker,
Lead Pastor

PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP . . . . . PSALM 34:1-3

†HYMN OF PRAISE . .ALL HAIL THE POWER OF JESUS' NAME (#97)

WORDS OF INSTITUTION . . . . . .1 CORINTHIANS 11:23-29
For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when He was betrayed took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it, and said, "This is My body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of Me." In the same way also He took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes. Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty concerning the body and blood of the Lord. Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself.

CONFESSION (RESPONSIVE)
Lord, we come to You humbly seeking Your presence, covered by the righteousness of our Savior Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that we have sinned and fall short of Your Holy perfection. We come with a contrite heart steadied by a confident faith that Your grace is enough. Therefore, we confess. We confess our pride, arrogance and self-reliance. We confess our rash anger. We confess our worldly desires, coveting, and lust. Lord, we confess our impatience. We confess complaining and murmuring under afflictions. We confess our displeasure with Your providence in our life. We confess our uncharitable spirit, envy, and jealousy of others. Lord, we confess the sins of our tongue. We confess our slothfulness, apathy, ingratitude and lack of prayer. Father, we confess and repent of trusting in the things of creation over You as our Creator. And Lord, we now approach Your table seeking Your peace, trusting in the divine provision of the body and blood of our Savior Jesus Christ for our sins.

Please take a moment to silently confess your sins.

COMMUNION

†THE BENEDICTION . . . . . .NUMBERS 6:24-26
The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious to you; the Lord lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace.

†THE DOXOLOGY . . . . . #625

JUDGES 16:15-21 (Sermon Text Excerpt)

And she said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and you have not told me where your great strength lies." [16]And when she pressed him hard with her words day after day, and urged him, his soul was vexed to death. [17]And he told her all his heart, and said to her, "A razor has never come upon my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If my head is shaved, then my strength will leave me, and I shall become weak and be like any other man." [18]When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called the lords of the Philistines, saying, "Come up again, for he has told me all his heart." Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hands. [19]She made him sleep on her knees. And she called a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. Then she began to torment him, and his strength left him. [20]And she said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" And he awoke from his sleep and said, "I will go out as at other times and shake myself free." But he did not know that the Lord had left him. [21]And the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes and brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze shackles. And he ground at the mill in the prison.
