

Week 3 Devotional

Good News of Great Joy

Luke 2:8–20

On a quiet night outside Bethlehem, heaven broke into earth's silence with a song of joy. The shepherds, startled and afraid, were the first to hear that the Savior had come. Joy entered the world that night—not because everything was easy or perfect, but because God Himself had drawn near.

True joy is not found in presents or plans, but in His presence. This week, may our hearts echo the angels' song: "Glory to God in the highest!"

1

Reflection Question

How can you share the joy of Jesus with someone who needs encouragement this week?

2

Prayer:

Lord, fill our hearts with Your joy. Let the good news of Your birth remind us that we are never alone. May Your joy overflow from our lives into every conversation, gathering, and act of kindness. Amen.

Family Activity

Go on a “Joy Hunt.” Each day this week, share one thing that brought you joy. Write it down and keep a family “Joy Jar” to read together on Christmas morning.

Self Reflections

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.