

friend. He knows our need, to our weakness is no stranger, behold your King; before Him lowly bend. Behold your King; before Him lowly bend,
Truly He taught us to love one another;
His law is Love and His Gospel is Peace.
Chains shall He break, for the slave is our brother and in His name, all oppression shall cease. Sweet hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we let all

Week 4 Devotional

The Gift of Love

John 3:16–17; Galatians 4:4–7

At the heart of the Christmas story is love—sacrificial, redeeming, unstoppable love. God so loved the world that He gave His only Son. That gift didn't come wrapped in luxury but in humility: a baby born to bring us back to the Father. Through Jesus, we are no longer slaves to sin, but children of God, fully loved and accepted.

As we close this Advent season and share in communion, let us remember:
Love came down to set us free.

1

Reflection Question

What does God's love mean for the way you love others?

2

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, thank You for Your perfect love. Help us to love as You have loved us—with compassion, forgiveness, and grace. Let our lives reflect Your heart in all we do. Amen.

Family Activity

Write a family “Love Letter” to Jesus. Each person shares one reason they’re thankful for His love. Place the letters in your Bible or on your Christmas tree as a reminder of His faithfulness.

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.